PANAMA CANAL CONFERENCE

Two Hundred Delegates Assemble at Calgary to Discuss Methods of Fostering Commerce by Waterway

RESOLUTIONS TO BE PRESENTED

Importance of Developing Agricultural Industry Is Dwelt on in Initial Speeches—B. C.'s Share in Trade

CALGARY, June 28.—Nearly 200 strong, representing investments of millions of dollars in lumbering, grain farming, mercantile and railroad interests, men of western Canada's most successful organizations are gathered in Calgary for the Panama Canal conference. They are meeting together for but one purpose, to arouse interest throughout Canada in general, so that when the Panama Canal is opened Canada will have in its Pacific seaports those facilities that will enable the Dominion to take its place with the other nations of the world in reaching forth and grasping the opportunities that the new waterway route will open up.

The conference was called to order by C. A. Daag, president of the Calgary board of trade, under the auspices of which the conference was called. He introduced Mayor Mitchell, who formally welcomed the delegates to Calgary. The convention has got down to business in real earnest. Mr. E. H. Heaps, one of the best known lumbermen on the American continent, has been elected chairman; Mr. A. N. Mouat, of Pincher Creek, is his deputy, and Mr. J. R. Davidson, publicity commissioner of Red Deer, is secretary. A committee, composed of Mayor Lee, of New Westminster; Mayor Armstrong, of Edmonton; Mr. E. J. Fream, secretary of the United Farmers of Alberta; Mr. W. A. Blair, secretary of the Vancouver board of trade, and Mr. B. R. Aitkins, of Revelstoke, are at work drawing up the resolutions which will come before the convention. It will be work from start to finish from morning till night.

Difficult to Realize

"We all realize that it is important," said Chairman Heaps. "We realize in a way, but no man can realize the full importance of it. I was in England last year, and I talked of the matter with one of the big shipowners of England, a man who owns over three hundred steamers, and he remarked that he only wished he could form even a faint idea of the changes to be brought about by the Panama Canal. He said there was a big fortune for the man who can estimate what the opening of the canal will mean to the commerce of the world, and if a man with his experience cannot form even a faint idea of what it will mean, how hard is it for us? All we can do is try, and try hard, and get ready to be in a position to take advantage of our opportunity when the time comes."

In a whole lot of ways the convention resembles a political campaign. Perhaps the most noticeable is the manner in which every one lauds the farmers. Mr. Heaps made a few remarks in which he admitted that the farmer was the backbone and the real wealth producer, but added, "There are others."

Mr. Tregillus said that agriculture was the mighty atlas that carried the whole world on its shoulders.

Mr. Heaps admitted that agriculture was of great importance, but there were other interests of importance. The tariff was a vexed question and one they should touch upon very lightly, if at all. If we had a tariff at all, it should be fair to all parties, and, if one interest was protected, all should be protected. Personally, as a lumberman, he belonged to an industry which had little or no protection, and he felt the lumber trade had not received the consideration due it by the government. He also said that the home market was the best market the farmers of Alberta could have, and advised that they build up a safe and accessible market in British Columbia. He also raised a laugh by stating that for years past the lumberman of Van-

"ABOLISH THE BAR"

Campaign of Publicity in Ontario Receives Poor Support

LONDON, Ont., June 28.—The local Liberal committee, having in charge the "Abolish the Bar" demonstration in Queens park on Dominion Day, canvassed the merchants of the city for permission to put bills announcing the holding of meeting in their windows. Only two of the merchants complied with the request. The others declined. In both instances where the bills were accepted they are given as little prominence in the show windows as possible.

A Liberal worker confirmed the fact that the committee had been turned down by the merchants.

"The business men evidently do not intend to get mixed up in our campaign," he said.

Superintendent in R.N.W.M.P.

OTTAWA, June 28.—An order-in-council has been passed making Inspector Horrigan of the Northwest Mounted Police a superintendent. It is probable that Supt. Horrigan will shortly be transferred to one of the larger districts in Saskatchewan.

Father of Seventeen

QUEBEC, June 28.—Dr. Edward Gavereau, director of the provincial vaccine institute, died today. He was in his 65th year and a well known physician. He was married in 1874 and was the father of seventeen children, five of whom survive.

INVADERS LAND AT COWICHAN BAY

Sixth Regiment and Seventy-Second Highlanders, 300 Strong, Are Advancing to Attack on Victoria

VANCOUVER, June 28.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon the steamer Princess Royal moved out from the C. P. R. wharf with the Sixth Regiment Duke of Connaught's Own Rifles and the Seventy-second Highlanders of Canada bound for Vancouver Island on a three day's campaign, which will culminate on Monday in an attack on the Victoria defences. Both corps paraded 300 strong, and marched from their respective drill halls at 1.30 p.m., headed by their bands. The men paraded in field service kit and presented a workmanlike appearance which earned them favorable comments as they marched to the dock between the lines of spectators.

Colonel J. Duff Stuart, of the Sixth Regiment, will command the brigade, and the command of the Sixth will revert to Major McHarg. Major J. Reynolds Tite, of the Sixth, will act as brigade major. The men will return from Victoria at 7 a.m. on Tuesday morning.

The troops disembarked from the Princess Royal at the wharf upon the arrival of the steamer at Cowichan Bay. They were formed up in order on the road, and when all had left

NO SURRENDER OF WAR TROPHY

Col. Sam Hughes Decides That the Bunker Hill Gun Will Remain in Canada's Possession

U. S. A. WILL NOT GIVE A QUID PRO QUO

OTTAWA, June 28.—There will be no surrender of the Bunker Hill gun, Col. Sam Hughes having declined to accede to the suggestion of the Massachusetts Peace society that the trophy be handed back.

What happened was that Colonel Hughes raised the question of general exchange of trophies, a species of reciprocity in captured cannon, flags, etc., and that the American assistant secretary of state for war, General Oliver, showed no disposition to accede, thereupon Col. Hughes failed to see the point of unrequited surrender.

General Oliver, in his communication, said that a certain number of British guns, largely trophies of the revolution, are in the custody of the war department, that others are at various army posts, where some of them form parts of monuments, and some of them have been built into structures, and that others, again, by act of congress, have been bestowed upon states of the union. It thus would be impracticable to collect many of them; while, in addition, legislation would be necessary, and any steps looking to the obtaining of that authority would have to be originated through diplomatic channels.

NEW CHAIRMAN IS SELECTED

Mr. H. L. Drayton, K. C., Understood to Have Accepted Post of Head of Canadian Railway Commission

MAN OF UNUSUAL EXECUTIVE ABILITY

Much Satisfaction Is Expressed in Official Circles—Will Take Up Duties in a Few Weeks' Time

OTTAWA, June 28.—It is understood that Mr. H. L. Drayton, who has agreed to accept the post of chairman of the railway commission, will not assume active discharge of the duties of the office for a few weeks, so as to enable him to close up existing examinations as corporation counsel.

Much satisfaction is felt in official circles at the prospect of engaging Mr. Drayton's services. Opinion is that he will worthily uphold the traditions of the past. Mr. Drayton has had exceedingly wide experience of the law, in particular having had a great deal to do with municipal and engineering problems. He has unusual executive ability and much firmness and decision of character.

Alberta's Military Camp

CALGARY, June 28.—The most impressive ceremonial of the military camp was that of the march past before his honor the lieut.-governor at Reservoir park this morning. The morning was an ideal one for the occasion and the men appeared right on their mettle. Promptly at 10 o'clock his honor and party arrived at the camp and immediately took up their position to the right of the saluting point, accompanied by General Mackenzie, Lieut.-Col. Cruickshank, camp commandant, and the officers of the staff. First in order came the cavalry regiments, next the 25th battery, C. F. A., followed by the infantry, 17th cavalry, field ambulance and corps of guides.

Rescues Child From Death

QUEBEC, June 28.—By the courage and presence of mind of Miss Ida Ryan, a young lady of Champlain street, the four-year-old girl of Mr. John Fitzgerald was saved from death by drowning. The child was playing at the waterfront and fell into the river. The alarm was given and Miss Ryan ran down and jumped into the water, rescuing the child and restoring her to her mother.

Terrific Damage From Wind Storm

NORTH BATTLEFORD, June 28.—A wind storm did considerable damage here last night, several door fronts were blown in and the Imperial bank building was damaged. Dozens of tents were blown down and the dust was so thick it was impossible to see across the street. Rain is badly needed here.

HELD IN TRUST

Superior Court's Decision Respecting Shares of Crown Reserve Mining Syndicate

MONTREAL, June 28.—Judge Demers of the superior court this morning rendered judgment upholding the decisions of lower courts in throwing out the applications of six members of the original Crown Reserve Mining Syndicate to complete the division between the members of the syndicate of 331,000 shares of Crown Reserve stock held in trust by the directors of the present Crown Reserve Mining company.

The directors and trustees hold the stock in question in trust for development purposes and repeated efforts have been made to cause a distribution, the allegation being that the stock would never be necessary for development purposes. The directors claimed that the trust was not terminable and Judge Demer's decision upholds this view and also sustains previous decisions rendered by Judges Tellier and Fortan.

Death of Mr. L. J. Ethier

MONTREAL, June 28.—Mr. L. J. Ethier, city attorney, died today at noon. He had been ill for six months but had faithfully stuck to his duties until a week ago when pain compelled him to retire from active service and remain at home. On Wednesday he was given the last rites of the church. He remained in a state of coma until the end.

ALL EXCEEDED SPEED LIMIT

Newspaper Test Shows How Law Is Broken by Motorists in Heart of Montreal's Business Section

MONTREAL, June 28.—As a preliminary move in the anti-speeding campaign following numerous motor car casualties during the past ten days, a local paper today sought out two experienced timers and arming them with stop-watches, placed them at Victoria square. The men remained on duty from noon until 1.30 p. m., and reported the passage of forty-six machines. The slowest was timed at twelve miles an hour, and the fastest at twenty-two. The average was sixteen.

The maximum allowed under the civic bylaw is nine. The square is in the heart of the business section of the city, and the streets along which these motor cars ran are among the busiest in the city.

Sentenced to Death

SYDNEY, N. S., June 28.—Harry Thomson, found guilty of murdering Johannes Walberg, a shipmate at North Sydney, November 21 last and was sentenced this afternoon by Judge Drysdale to be hanged on September 6 next.

Foot and Mouth Disease

DEMOCRATS FAIL TO NOMINATE

After Taking Twelve Ballots, Convention Adjourns Until Today—Mr. Champ Clark Is Gaining Strength

NEW YORK DELEGATES DESERT MR. HARMON

Governor Wilson Holds His Adherents Well Together—Situation Is Viewed With Concern by Leaders

BALTIMORE, Md., June 29.—Giving up all attempts to break the existing deadlock, the leaders in the Democratic party decided at 3:05 o'clock this (Saturday) morning to take adjournment until 1 o'clock in the afternoon in the hope that some sort of an agreement might be reached as to a presidential nominee. Many of the delegates protested against the delay caused by the adjournment, but apparently there was no hope of settling the nominaton by conferences on the convention floor.

Twelve ballots were taken. Champ Clark made a sensational gain on the tenth when New York's solid block of ninety votes went to him on this ballot, Mr. Clark's total reaching a high water mark of 556, a clear majority, but 170 votes short of the necessary two-thirds to nominate. On the eleventh ballot and twelfth ballot, Clark's figures were 554 and 549.

Governor Woodrow Wilson held his forces steadily together, and during the night's voting, there were only slight fluctuations in his totals. Votes lost in some delegations, were made up in others. Mr. Wilson's last total was 354.

Governor Harmon on the last ballot, dropped to 29 votes, cast by members of the Ohio delegation. New York's desertion brought the Ohio executive rapidly down.

Noisy Demonstrations

The long night and early morning session was marked by several noisy demonstrations. The first came from the Clark adherents, when New York shifted to the speaker. Then came a counter-demonstration from the Wilson people when ten Wilson delegates from Oklahoma declared they would not "Be dragged into Tammany Hall." The New York vote, cast by Mr. Murphy, was nearly always greeted with mingled hisses and cheers.

Leaders in the convention viewed the situation with some concern when the night session was adjourned. The Clark strength seemed to have been fully tested and he was still far short.

Governor Wilson did not make the gains his managers expected. There was a report at the adjournment time that the New York delegation had agreed to vote for Clark only on three ballots, giving the speaker a full opportunity to display his greatest strength. It was also said that New York would next go

VOTES FOR WOMEN

Suffragettes Now Direct Their Efforts to Smashing Post Office Windows

LONDON, June 28.—A general campaign of destruction of post offices throughout the country was begun today by suffragettes. They smashed the windows of the Central post office and of the Reform Club at Manchester. Some of the London branch offices and those at Hitchin and Letchworth were raided, as were the post offices at Edinburgh, Aberdeen, Derby, Ilkeston and Ludlow. Women arrested here announced that their notion today was the beginning of a campaign to smash the windows of every post office in the country.

Premier Asquith was subjected to another assault last evening when he was attending a reception given by Lady Glenconnell. A woman, whose identity was not divulged, caught the lapels of his coat and shook him vigorously until the premier was breathless. Two men among the guests present caught Mr. Asquith's assailant and hurled her down the stairs. The struggle was so violent that a sleeve was torn out of the suffragette's dress, her combs fell out of her hair, her gold watch was broken, and she lost her diamond brooch.

New Ball Park

CALGARY, June 28.—Hillhurst park was opened as a baseball enclosure yesterday evening, when Red Deer beat Hassans 6 to 4.

TRUNK ROADS A NECESSITY

Lord Montague Speaks of Importance of Free Thoroughfares in the West—Delighted With His Trip

MONTREAL, June 28.—Delighted with the results of his several weeks tour in the far west, Lord Montague of Beaulieu, a baron of Scotland, is in the city today, preparatory to continuing his journey to New York and thence to London. Speaking about the conditions of roads suitable for motoring, Lord Montague, who is the proprietor of the well known motor journal, "The Car," said:

"The roads don't exist here. There are only the railways. There will be no real development in the west until excellent main roads are laid down as in Scotland and England. The independent business spirit of a young nation is fostered only by free thoroughfares for her commerce throughout the length and breadth of the land.

"I believe in the business efficiency of the motor car. It will, in my opinion, always beat railway and electric traction."

Asked about his tour, Lord Montague said: "The west is simply great. Prices for labor are high, almost prohibitive, but I do not fear a slump because the development there must continue."

STRIKE AVERTED

Men Employed in Montreal Building Trade Given Increased Pay

MONTREAL, June 28.—Danger of a strike in Montreal between stone masons, bricklayers and the builders is past, as today an agreement was signed between the representatives of the unions and the representatives of the builders' exchange.

The agreement is for two years, dating from July 1, 1912, up to and including June 30, 1914, and three months' notice is to be given by either party before any alterations take place. The men of both organizations receive an increase of five cents an hour and have Saturday afternoon free during July and August. At present the bricklayers receive fifty cents an hour; this is to be increased to fifty-five cents and the rate on sewer or conduit work is to be sixty-five cents an hour. The stonemasons at present get 45 cents an hour and this is to be increased to fifty cents. On their part the unions dropped the demand for the foremen to belong to the unions.

CAMPAIGN IN SASKATCHEWAN

Both Parties Talk Confidently as Fight Progresses—Difficult to Tell What Election Prospects Are

LIBERAL CANDIDATES IN ALL 52 SEATS

Premier Scott Devotes Energies to His Own Riding—Conservative Leader Is Touring the Province

SASKATOON, June 28.—The second week of the Saskatoon elections closes with both parties working like beavers and both sides talking confidently and admitting privately that it is impossible to tell anything about how the election is going. The Liberals claim that the reciprocity feeling is strong, and that the seventeen thousand majority of last September is still on their side. The Conservatives claim that reciprocity is dead and there is a strong wave of sentiment towards the Conservative party. As a matter of fact, neither side knows much about it. The province is so large and means of communication are so slow that it is difficult to readily feel the public pulse, as in eastern Canada. Liberals have now candidates in the 52 seats which will vote on July 11. There are straight Conservative candidates in 50 seats. In Moose Jaw county, Mr. Fred W. Green, secretary of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers, is standing as an Independant Conservative. In Vonda constituency there are two candidates in the field, both opposed to the government, as well as the Liberal candidate. The Conservative representatives are letting them fight it out between themselves.

The only change in the situation during the week was at Souris, where a Grain Growers' candidate, Mr. Nelson Simpson, is in the field, and at Eagle Creek, where two Liberals are running. Mr. Page Ridout and Mr. George Harris were both canvassing, and it looks as if Mr. J. A. Laycock, the Conservative, would win easily. A new convention was called at Laurel, and the two candidates fought it out in the convention, Mr. Harris winning. The Liberals claim they will now win the seat, while the Conservatives say the breach in the Liberal ranks is such that it cannot be healed.

Outside of the changes of the Conservatives' electoral list, lists have not been mutilated. It has been a week without a sensation. Hon. Mr. Scott has devoted the week to his own riding, Swift Current, speaking in that town tonight. Hon. F. W. G. Haultain completed a hard week's campaign with a meeting at Weyburn tonight, which will be followed by another in Francis constituency at Howard tomorrow night.

DIED A HERO

Hon. Mr. J. Douglas Touman Lost His Life While on Scientific Expedition

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 28.—A despatch from Dr. R. W. Brock, of the geological survey, to the family of J. Douglas Truman, who was drowned while on a scientific expedition in the Rainey River district of Ontario, indicates that he died a hero. Truman, with a man named Knox, and Dr. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, were in a canoe below the Steep Rock falls, near Steep Rock lake, when the canoe upset. Walcott could not swim and Truman and Knox got him on top of the canoe. Apparently fearing that three were too many to hold on to the frail craft, Truman let loose to swim ashore but had not gone far when he called back for help. Knox left to aid him, but before reaching him Truman sank in 30 fathoms of water.

Fifty Years Ago Today

(From the Colonist of June 29, 1862.)

Real Estate—Messrs. Franklin held an auction sale yesterday at their rooms on Government street, and notwithstanding the excitement usually attendant upon the arrival of a steamer the sale was well attended. The following properties were knocked down at the prices attached: Lot corner Pandora and Cook streets, $870; lot corner Johnson and Cook, $230; lot on Johnson street near Cook, $265; lot 968, Yates street, $250; corner of Quadra and View streets, $870; lots 13 and 14 (North Park street property), for $295 and $335, respectively; lot 1060, Yates street, $225, and lot 788 for $225.

Arrival of Pacific—The steamer Pacific, Capt. Burns, arrived in Esquimalt Harbor yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. She brought 38 passengers and a general cargo to the amount of $15,000.

U. S. Volunteers—Lieut. Toohill, of Col. Steinberger's regiment of W. T. Volunteers, arrived on the steamer from Portland yesterday, with 13 recruits. They belong to the company of Capt. Tucker, of Stellicoom, and will make up that company to its full strength, raising the regiment also to its company of men. The recruits will sail for Fort Stellicoom on the Eliza Anderson this morning.

The New Westminster people sent the documents yesterday to the Hon. Mr. Cameron, respecting the punishment of Mr. Robson for contempt of court. They are to be laid before the Duke of Newcastle.

Too Bad—Yesterday afternoon a wagon laden with lumber was proceeding up Fort street when the rear wheels sunk up to the hubs in the mud in an excavation in the road recently made by the Gas company. The wagoner was compelled to unload his vehicle before it was possible to extricate it. Not fifty yards farther on, workmen belonging to the Gas company were engaged in laying down mains, and as far as could be judged restoring the excavation in an efficient manner. We are glad to hear that the city inspector has taken cognisance of the matter, as such injury to traffic is carefully provided against in the city ordinances.

GIVING TRIAL TO CHURCH UNION

Shifting of Congregations to Worship With Other Denominations Is Method to Obtain in Montreal This Summer

MONTREAL, June 28.—A species of church union will have four distinct trials in this city this summer, members of congregations of one denomination worshipping with churchgoers of another different up-bringing. No less than eight city churches will be closed down for one month while pastors take a vacation, and in each case matters have been so arranged that a church of a different denomination located in the same vicinity will temporarily undertake to attend to the spiritual wants of the congregation, whose place of worship is for the time being unused.

On the reopening of the church of the visitor the pastor, who has been doing double duty, will take his vacation, and his congregation will worship under the pastor of the reopened church, who will by that time have returned from his holiday trip.

the vessel the march on Victoria was at once begun. It was close on seven o'clock when the men moved off, and within a couple of hours they were bivouacked at Cobble Hill, where their intelligence department had picked out an ideal spot, sheltered and with an abundance of good water near by. PANAMA CANAL CONFERENCE

couver and the coast had been trying to give the farmers of Alberta cheap lumber. Mr. Heaps closed his remarks with the statement that all should work harmoniously together to give each and all a fair show. "The development of all the other industries helps agriculture," he said. "It is no good to have the grain if you haven't a market, and you cannot have a market without cities, and cities without manufactories. None of us should take a selfish view, but look over the situation fairly and work harmoniously for the benefit of the whole country and for the future prosperity of Canada."

"In any business all departments must harmoniously work together and must be well organized and well managed, and in a big country like this, dealing with a big question like this, we should follow that rule," said Mr. Heaps.

Mr. Tregillus gave a very comprehensive address, in which he pointed out the relation of every industry to the agricultural industry, which, he said, was the mother of all the industries in the world.

Professor Odlum dealt with the canal from a British Columbia standpoint; while Mr. L. P. Strong told of the meetings leading to the calling of the conference.

WANTS SALE OF DRUGS TO BE PROHIBITED

Provincial Convention of W. C. T. U. Decides to Appeal to Government —Pledges Support to League

VANCOUVER, June 28.—Among the unfinished business that came before the final session of the W. C. T. U., provincial convention was the adoption of several important recommendations presented by the resolutions committee covering the broad lines along which the union is active.

Reports from the departments of public meetings and medal contests and the final report of the plan of work committee were also received and greetings were read from Mrs. S. H. Wright, of Toronto, president of the Dominion union.

In adopting the report of the foreign work department, presented by its secretary, Mrs. G. H. Smith, the convention resolved that Mrs. Smith's name be laid before the Dominion convention as a possible candidate for the office of Dominion superintendent of foreign work.

A recommendation was passed that the convention appeal to the government to pass a measure prohibiting the sale of cocaine and other opiates except for medical purposes, and also that the attention of the proper authorities be directed to the suppression of drinks containing caffeine, cocaine or other drugs.

Considerable discussion arose over a motion made to appoint a committee to form a board of publication whose duty would be to make arrangements and raise funds for the establishment of a provincial official organ. From a standing vote taken, it was clear that the majority were in favor of pledging heartier support to the Dominion organ now in existence, rather than run the risk of entering on a plan of publication, which might not prove successful or, at the best, take two to three years to get into running order. This motion being lost, a recommendation was passed that the British Columbia convention be responsible for their proportion of the expenses of issuing the bulletin.

The convention expressed itself as approving the change of name from the Local Option League to the Prohibition League of British Columbia and pledged its support to this body.

Another recommendation adopted, provided that institute work may be made a separate department of the operations of the union, and that a programme committee for the provincial union be composed of the president, the corresponding secretary and the press draft of the entertainment committee.

A committee was formed to inquire into the matter of arranging some plan whereby the expenses of delegates to future provincial conventions be averaged and divided among all unions, thus making it possible for interior unions to be represented more generally at annual gatherings. Some such arrangement, it was pointed out, has been adopted in Australia and New Zealand with great success.

DEMOCRATS FAIL TO NOMINATE

to Underwood. This will serve as a further test of the ability of Wilson to hold his votes. If he continues to do so, New York eventually may go to him. The Clark people assert they have sufficient "rock-ribbed" votes to prevent the nomination of any other man.

The situation was apparently as badly mixed as ever, as the tired delegates filed out of the convention hall shortly before daybreak this morning to seek a little rest before going on with the struggle in the afternoon.

WORD OF WORKMAN SHOULD BE SACRED

Mr. J. Havelock-Wilson Speaks Plainly on the Necessity for Honest Observance of Contracts—Socialism No Cure

There was a large attendance at Labor hall last night when Mr. C. Sivertz rose to introduce Mr. J. Havelock Wilson, ex-M.P., for Sunderland in the British House of Commons, who as president of the Seamen's and Firemen's union is widely known both in America and Europe.

Mr. Wilson took his stand as a trades unionist pure and simple, and as one who had organized the union he was specially associated with in many countries of Europe as well as in America. He recalled many incidents of their fights with shipowners and the progress that had been made in achieving the aim that all unionists had at heart, the improvement of the lot of the workers. He doubted, however, if mistakes were not being made in England at present; strikes were organized over trifles and he did not believe that universal strikes were good policy. To call out men who had nothing to complain of and who did not want to come out was liable to produce discontent in their ranks and lead to the manufacture of scabs.

The speaker outlined the proceedings that led to the big strike in coronation week that paralyzed the shipping trade of Great Britain, and the victory that had been won by the workers.

Mr. Wilson, after pleading for more tolerance amongst themselves when divergent opinions existed denounced the breaking of contracts that had been entered into with employers. They were doing a dishonorable thing in entering into a contract they did not mean to keep. (Cries of "No, no," and a voice "Honor between workmen but none between workmen and employers." He had found many honorable employers and the workman's word when given should be his bond. (Cheers.) Unless that was the case civilization was a thing of the past. There were many black sheep among employers, but were they going to take them as their example?

Many questions were put to Mr. Wilson which he answered, though not always to the satisfaction of the questioners. He was questioned as to a statement made at Seattle that Socialism had not made ground in England during the last twenty years, and reiterated his own personal belief that Socialism was not the remedy for the ills of labor. Nor did he believe that the abolition of capital would be for the good of the workman.

After a vote of thanks had been passed to Mr. Wilson many of the audience went up to shake hands with one whom they had met in different ports of the world when working for the interests of the sailors and firemen.

Mr. Wilson, while here was the guest of the local Seamen's union. Mr. Wilson does not believe in Socialism as a remedy for labor troubles. He goes back to first principles, and it is his conviction that good faith in keeping agreements both on the part of employers and employed is the true remedy, that when this is done Socialism is unnecessary and will not flourish. In England, he says, Socialism is not backed up any weight of public opinion, nor it it believed in by the majority. He himself has spent his life in working for the rights of workingmen and believes that all reasonable demands can be satisfied without any resort to force.

Mr. Havelock Wilson began life as a sailor, and during the twenty-five years that he has presided over the national Seamen's union has done much to promote the better organization of labor in all lines on both sides of the Atlantic.

Mr. Wilson, with Mrs. Wilson, left on the midnight boat for Vancouver, where he will address a meeting this evening and leave immediately afterwards for Chicago.

DEVELOPMENT IN CANADIAN WEST

Vice-President Bury Says the Whole Country Is Enjoying Steady Growth—Double Tracking of the C. P. R.

WINNIPEG, June 28.—"There seems to be less speculation and more steady development taking place," said Vice-President Bury, of the C. P. R., speaking of his trip to the Far West, from which he has just returned.

"I found, generally speaking, that the farmers gave a very good report regarding the crops. The lumber industry also appears to be flourishing with lots or orders ahead. Indeed the country all over is enjoying steady growth."

Mr. Bury travelled by the main line to Victoria, then motored through British Columbia and returned by the northern line via Saskatoon. He stated that the double tracking of the road was making satisfactory progress and that they had reasonable expectation that the amount of work allotted for this year would be completed.

On the subject of the electrification of a portion of the railway, he said that no definite arrangements had been made yet. The question of electrifying in some of the ore-carrying branches in Southern British Columbia was being studied, but no decision had yet been arrived at.

The C. P. R. was, Mr. Bury mentioned, using oil as the propelling power for locomotives in the Rocky Mountains and also in the Selkirks. One of the engines made a trial trip the other day. The object in using oil, he explained, was to ease the work of the firemen in the mountains, and to conserve the forests, helping to prevent the spread of . . .

BRITISH MANUFACTURERS

Vancouver's Preparations to Receive Visiting Capitalists

VANCOUVER, June 28.—At noon next Tuesday the distinguished party of 50 manufacturers of Great Britain, on a tour of Canada, will reach Vancouver.

The following arrangements for entertaining them were made yesterday afternoon at a gathering of the committee of Messrs. Jonathan Rogers, E. R. Rickets, C. H. Macaulay and Dr. E. S. Rowe, of the Vancouver Progress club, and President Erskine, of the board of trade.

At 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the visitors will be taken for a drive around the city, to the scenic features and the manufacturing sites. They will be left to themselves Tuesday evening. At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning they and the mayor and aldermen will be guests of the British Columbia Electric railway, and will be taken on the Aluvia up Burrard Inlet, to view the harbor and inspect the mills at Barnet, thence they will be taken up the north arm to Wigwam Inn, and afterward to Lake Buntzen to inspect the power plant. At 8 o'clock in the evening they will be tendered a banquet by the city at the Hotel Vancouver.

At 10 o'clock Thursday morning the party will leave on the boat for Victoria.

Earnings of Artists 75 Years Ago

(From The Etude)

The difference between the earnings of great artists in our time and from sixty to seventy-five years ago is not so large as some persons imagine, notwithstanding the fact that money in those days had about four times the purchasing power it possesses now. There are letters of Malibran in existence which prove that she received as high as $2,000 for an appearance, and that was before 1835. It is also on record that Franz Liszt took in, at a single concert in St. Petersburg, about $11,000. No instrumentalist since has ever equalled that figure. Paganini's earnings also were enormous.

The greatest drawing capacity ever known either among vocalists or instrumentalists was that of Jenny Lind, during her famous tour of America in the early fifties under the management of P. T. Barnum. Barnum cleared for himself on that tour $500,000. The receipts of the opening concert at Castle Garden were $37,000—a figure never equalled before or since; nor is it likely that it will ever be equalled again, for the combination of a Jenny Lind and a P. T. Barnum will not so easily be duplicated.

Prior to 1830 salaries for singers were low. There exists a letter by Rossini, which testifies to the effect that the prima donna of a good opera company in Italy recived, for a season of five weeks, 400 scudi, about equal to as many dollars. The first bass and baritone had 300 scudi each, the first tenor 350, and the conductor, only 190 scudi.

Malibran set a different pace after 1830. In her heyday she could command almost any price, and other singers profited by her example. For instance, the tenor, Donzeli, received, for the brief carnival period at the Royal Opera at Madrid, $7,200. The prima donna, Enger, received, for a couple of appearances at Palermo $9250, and in 1838 she was paid for one season at the Vienna Royal Opera $14,000. No singer on the continent today commands such a salary as a permanent member of any opera, either royal or municipal.

The celebrated Grisi was paid $30,000 for a season of six months at The Paris Grand Opera at about this time, while her fee for singing at a York festival was $3,000. Rubini, one of the greatest tenors of all times, received in London, in one season, approximately $50,000. This was at the opera only; his fees for private soirees are not included. His earnings that season probably amounted to about $80,000 in London alone.

Today such great celebrities among the wandering stars as Caruso, Tetrazini, Nordica and Schumann-Heink earn as much or more than this. But the salaries of the great singers of the continental opera houses are not higher on the average than they were sixty years ago. Today there are few singers in Germany who command a fixed salary of $7,500.

CANNOT COMPETE WITH CANADA

Mr. Justice O'Conner of Australia Says the Dominion Presents Most Advantages for British Immigration

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 28.—One of the most distinguished jurists of the British empire, in the person of Hon. Richard Edward O'Conner, one of the five members of the high court of Australia, is at present in the city. Mr. Justice O'Conner, accompanied by his son, arrived from Ottawa today, and leaves for Victoria on Saturday. They are completing a tour of the world which was undertaken to benefit the learned judge's health.

In conversation with a representative of The Colonist he said that the Commonwealth's federal system was founded more on American than Canadian lines in that more authority was left to the different states. The system was working out admirably and without a doubt the centralization of authority had resulted in a greater prosperity and harmony throughout the Commonwealth.

The change, he added, had been made with very little friction and no one of the states wanted to revert to the original system of entirely separate government.

"The question of a national capital," said Justice O'Conner, "has at last been settled. Not one of the biggest cities was chosen but a site in Canberra district of New South Wales, where a model capital will be laid out somewhat after the style of Ottawa or Washington. This move was decided upon because of the jealousy among the older cities.

"I am not sure whether this will affect the high court or not. Now we have to travel from capital to capital hearing appeals, but once the new capital is under way we may become a stationary body such as your supreme court."

Justice O'Conner declared that Australia was enjoying the most prosperous period in its history. Crops were excellent and the various industries were busy. The continent could not compete with Canada for British immigration owing to the greater distance and the fewer attractions offered, but immigration was nevertheless constant and of a high standard. He believed that Canada and the Commonwealth would in the future exchange products much more largely as each had many things the other needed.

LARGE ENTRY FOR THE OLYMPIC GAMES

Nine Nations Will Be Represented in Three Thousand Metre Team Race

STOCKHOLM, June 28.—The number of entries for the Olympic games is greater than on any previous occasion. Seventeen heats and two qualifying rounds will be necessary to reduce the field of ninety-five entered for the one hundred metre dash to the six men entitled to compete in the final.

One hundred men are entered for the two hundred metre dash, twenty-eight will contest in the four hundred metre events and seventy-two in the eight hundred metres. For the fifteen hundred metres eighty-eight men are entered, and for the five thousand metres eighty. The ten thousand metre run has attracted eighty-two, and the high hurdles sixty competitors.

The classic Marathon will bring together seventy-two contenders. Nine nations will be represented in the three thousand metre team race, while teams representing the United States, Russia, Italy, Hungary, England, Canada, Germany, France, Austria and Sweden will match speed and staying powers in the sixteen hundred metre relay. The relay dash of four hundred metres will have teams competing from the United States, Hungary, Austria, Germany, Bohemia, England, Russia, Norway, Canada, France, Italy and Sweden.

The entries for the field events are not quite so large. Sixty-five men will compete in the running high jump and the standing high jump, eighty-nine in the running broad jump, sixty-seven in the standing broad jump, fifty-seven in the hop, step and jump, and forty-seven in the pole vault.

Throwing the javelin with the best hand will bring together sixty-five, while twelve have entered for the event using both hands. Seventy-one will throw the discus with the best hand and fifty-six with both hands. The shot put with the best hand has attracted sixty-two competitors and the same event with two hands twenty-seven. Only twenty-eight men will try the hammer throw; seven of these being members of the American team an d12 representing Sweden.

This imposing list of entries has surpassed all expectations, and the arrangement of heats is taxing the committee to the utmost. It is the intention, however, to extend the time allotted for the programme, so that the conflicts may be avoided.

Frankie Burns Gets Decision

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—When Referee Graner stopped the bout between Frankie Burns, of Oakland, and "Red" Watson, of Los Angeles, in the eighth round of their fight tonight and awarded the fight to Burns on points, the boxer from the south was still boring in gamely and fighting with the right arm only. His left arm was injured in the third or fourth round, and during the rest of the battle was useless. While Burns outpointed his opponent, the latter showed great staying powers and gives promise of development as a clever boxer.

Victoria Amateur Lacrosse Team Left For Mainland Yesterday to Play Today

Victoria's amateur lacrosse twelve left for Vancouver last evening to meet the holders of the Mann cup at Recreation Park this afternoon. They have been hard at work through the week, a practice taking place every night, with the exception of Thursday, when the ball park was occupied by the professional ball players, and are reported to be in fine fettle for the engagement. Mr. Sam Lorimer, under whose direction they have been drilling, is confident that the Vancouverites are about to have the hardest match of the season. He believes that the Capitals will be able to beat them by a shade. If they do the Capitals will have a good fighting chance for the championship.

FAST TIME FOR THE QUARTER MILE RACE

Horine Says That Reidpath, American Runner, Is a Wonder

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—George Horine, the Stanford athlete now wearing the colors of the Olympic club, who recently established a new world's record in the high jump, is responsible for the information received here that the American team to the Olympic games at Stockholm has in Reidpath, the Syracuse runner, the most likely candidate for the world's mark over a quarter of a mile. Horine states that Reidpath is the only athlete of the present time who has a chance to better Maxey Long's record of forty-seven seconds. Reidpath was timed in forty-eight seconds at the American intercollegiates, running around his opponents on the back stretch, with a poor track.

Horine states that Reidpath runs like a deer and is strong and powerful. According to the local boy, Deidpath will yet do 0.46 3-5 for the quarter and should lower the Olympic record of 0.49 2-5 for 400 meters when he faces the field in Stockholm on July 8th. The latter mark is also held by Long and was made during the Olympic games at Paris in 1900.

Long's quarter-mile record has withstood the attack of aspiring athletes for twelve years. In the meantime, new figures have been hung up in the remaining middle distances and a general revision of the track and field figures accomplished in the high-class competition of the past season.

The Word "Emigrant"

The Hon. George E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, is evidently giving a good account of himself and his country during his visit in England. From various sources come reports of striking statements that he has made, and which must surely reflect the opinion of many of his fellow Canadians, regardless of their political affiliations. Of these, one is especially worthy of notice and approval.

At a luncheon given to him at the Royal Canadian Institute in London, he said, in the course of his address: "I wish somebody would bury the word 'emigrant' when a man leaves Britain for Canada. He has simply moved."

Nothing truer or more needful of expression has ever been said. The Canadian attitude toward the mover-in from across the Atlantic may well be subjected to radical revision, and his phraseology be altered to fit the change.

At present there is something not very distantly related to contempt in the customary thought of those who travel steerage across the ocean from another part of the empire to start anew in the great west. The word "emigrant" suggests poverty, instead of the real spirit of enterprise which is more often represented by the newcomers.

We can hardly honor the older pioneers of this country without in justice honoring the later men and women who are playing precisely the same part a few decades later. Much of the proudest blood of this continent came over emigrantly, and the end is not yet. The passengers of every Mayflower of history came over between decks, and the sooner it is realised the better.

If a Canadian citizen moves from Toronto to Ottawa, he is not an emigrant. Incidentally he is a wise man. But as to his change of residence, he has simply moved. And if there is any reality whatsoever in all the phraseology of the empire, the man who goes from one part of it to another simply moves.

It is a wise saying of Mr. Foster, to be heeded with profit. He recognizes the human element of trade and commerce, and appreciates its value. Let every hand go out to every newcomer, whatever his financial condition, giving him comradely welcome, and making deserved place for him in the one widening circle of Canadian family life.—Ottawa Citizen.

Saanich Assessment—The Saanich court of revision met yesterday and disposed of sixteen appeals against the assessment roll, upholding the roll in every case. The total assessed property is $9,250,000, as against $5,250,000 last year. A special meeting of the council was held in the afternoon, at which bylaws 13, 14 and 15 were passed to be voted on on July 11. These deal with local improvements and Jessamine avenue, in each case between Burnside and Carey roads.

PARLIAMENTARY GOVERNMENT

In these hysterical times the man who has something to say that is a little out of the common will find many listeners. Therefore when Mr. Norman Angell writes to the press to say that parliamentary institutions have broken down, a great many people are likely to believe him. He tells us that such an institution is suitable for simple social conditions, but not for the complex times in which we live, and that we are approaching a time, when society will be governed by a number of organizations such as labor unions, professional unions, commercial unions and so on. Mr. Angell does not seem to realize that unless there is some law-making body, whose decrees these several unions will be bound to obey in their relations to each other, we will have chaos and not government. This law-making power must be either absolute in an individual or parliamentary in a representative body, and as the former would not be now tolerated, the latter is inevitable.

Mr. Angell claims that the proceedings in connection with the recent coal and dock strikes show that parliamentary institutions are a failure, for he says that parliament was incapable of accomplishing anything until it had first consulted the unions of employees and employed and ascertained what was the irreducible minimum of their respective demands. It seems to us that this, so far from demonstrating what Mr. Angell thinks it does, proves quite the contrary. It shows the facility with which, under an elastic constitution, parliamentary government can adjust itself to the changing conditions of society.

Men like Mr. Angell are somewhat of a social menace. Another of the same type is Mr. H. G. Wells, and there are many others. These men are clever writers; they have a good deal of superficial knowledge. They derive a handsome income from their writings and and upon as many subjects as they can, and in as sensational a manner as they can. Thus they are able to find ready sale for their productions in prominent periodicals, which are commercial ventures every one of them, seeking to print what will sell the most readily. Mr. Angell wrote a clever article on the military situation in Europe, entitled "The Great Illusion." Since this appeared he has been writing in an ex-cathedra fashion upon a variety of subjects. He may know a good deal about military matters, but this does not qualify him to speak with authority upon everything. Jack Johnson knows a great deal about prizefighting; but we would not value his opinion upon the Shakespeare-Bacon controversy. Mr. Wells wrote some clever stories of the impossible; but this does not fit him to solve, as he seems to be trying to do, all social questions. Sir Gilbert Parker is a clever novelist, but of late he is being exploited as an authority on the army, the navy, commerce and politics. Publicity is the great desideratum of the man who makes his living by literature, and so that he can attain it, he is ever ready with opinions upon a solution of questions, which have puzzled students and philosophers in all ages. There was recently rather a grotesque example of the intrusion of a perfectly valueless opinion on an important social question. A symposium, by which may be understood a collection of opinions on some subject from people who do not know anything about it, was got up on divorce, and the man chosen as the expert was Sir Ernest Shackleton. Now Sir Ernest is a very fine fellow, and a great success as an Antarctic explorer, but it passes ordinary comprehension why he should be supposed to be an authority on divorce.

We have digressed somewhat from the subject, but the purpose of the digression is to show of how little real value such expressions of opinion as that of Mr. Angell on parliamentary government are. In one part of his article he tells us that we must get rid of our "mid-Victorian" ideas. "Mid-Victorian" is a useful term to employ when you are not quite sure what you are talking about, and it so happens that Albert, Prince Consort, speaking in mid-Victorian times said pretty much the same thing that Mr. Angell is telling us now. He was by no means satisfied that parliamentary government was a success, and yet we venture to say that in the past fifty years it has accomplished more for the betterment of mankind than any other system of government that has ever been devised.

A PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITY

At the present writing Mr. Champ Clark is the leading candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. He may or may not be chosen, but the fact that he is so prominent in the running makes sidelights on his character interesting, for it shows the sort of man whom the turmoil of United States politics brings to the surface. Mr. Clark, whose baptismal name is Beauchamp Clark, is a personage whose fitness for high position can be understood from his method of characterizing other men in high position. Of President Cleveland he once said:

There are but two men in all the hoary registers of time that Cleveland's name ought to be associated with—Judas Iscariot and Benedict Arnold. Shades of Arnold, forgive the profanation! Upon reflection, I think really I ought to beg the pardon of Judas Iscariot, because after his treason he did have the grace to go out and hang himself.

On another occasion he said that Mr. Cleveland was "the tout of plutocrats, who had played a colossal bunco game on the Democratic party" and had "stolen the livery of heaven to serve the devil in." Of his views of government we have some idea when we know that he characterized civil reform as "the greatest and most monumental fraud ever adopted or proposed in a civilized country." Of his fitness to deal with international questions we may judge from the following.

Congress should formulate the Monroe Doctrine as we now understand it and it should be in words about as follows: "The American republic hereby takes all of North America, Central America, South America and all the islands of the adjacent seas under the shadow of her protecting wing, guarantees to them any form of government they choose, and warns Europe, Asia and Africa to keep their hands off the Western Hemisphere on the penalty of being thrashed within an inch of their lives."

Allowance may, of course, be made for a man who is not in a responsible position and who is talking largely to hear himself talk; but Mr. Clark's remarks about annexation show that even a place of great prominence in the government of the country failed to teach him to know what is due to a friendly nation. There is no likelihood that Mr. Clark will ever be president of the United States; but the fact that a man of his make-up should be named for such an exalted office is a sad commentary upon the institutions of that country.

FUTURE OF SOUTH AFRICA

A recent reviewer, after an examination of the condition of South Africa, reaches the conclusion that the close of the ten years since the peace finds the outlook for the country very satisfactory. He is speaking from the political standpoint. Industrially, there seems to be doubts as to the future of a very serious character. South Africa is living upon its capital. Its gold mines and its diamond mines are yielding millions every year, and though their exhaustion does not seem to be in sight, so far as the public knows, it is absolutely certain that they cannot continue to yield indefinitely. Meanwhile the black native population is increasing more rapidly than the white population, although the latter is being reinforced by immigration. The blacks are also steadily advancing towards civilization. Their progress has not as yet been rapid; but we all know that the speed of changes becomes accelerated as the advance proceeds. Japan furnishes us with a remarkable illustration of this. The black South African is a factor that will have to be reckoned with before very long.

It is pointed out that the white man has never worked in South Africa. He has controlled, supervised, planned and generally played the part of master, but has never taken off his coat and done manual labor. This may be all very well, say those who speak from knowledge of the facts, as long as the country is living on its capital; but it will not do when it becomes necessary for the country to live within its income. Our writer asks: Will the white man in South Africa be content to work side by side on an equal footing with the black man? and he answers his own question in the negative. He says that if the white man remains in Africa he must remain as the employer of the black man, which means that he must always be in the small minority. We have, therefore, to consider if it will be possible to maintain a social and political organization in South Africa in which there is a ruling white minority and a great black majority that will soon demand a voice in government. The writer referred to thinks this will be impossible. He is, indeed, inclined to be very pessimistic as to the future of South Africa as a country for white men.

These facts present one of those difficult "problems of empire" with which the British people are called upon to deal. In America the red man disappeared before the white man; in Africa the black man seems not only quite capable of holding his own, but of increasing under the secure conditions resulting from a white man's government. Moreover, the truth seems to be that South Africa as a country does not present many attractions as a permanent home for white people of the English-speaking race. The next generation may see great changes in that overseas dominion.

For amateur soldiers, the Fifth Regiment can certainly handle the big guns to the king's taste. But perhaps it is hardly fair to regard them as amateurs, but only as non-professionals. They are a fine lot of fellows anyhow.

When the English school children visited Paris lately they were taken to a concert, on the programme of which was the somewhat startling line, "God Shave the King." We never knew before that the French entertained such barbarous notions towards His Majesty.

The British postmaster-general received the delegates to the International Radio-Telegraphic conference and addressed them in French, German, Spanish and Italian. Mr. Samuel is certainly a linguist of no small powers.

A prophet has arisen to remark that the day of the motor-car as a luxury has passed, and it has become "a humdrum necessity." His prediction is that the horse will shortly come into his own again. In this connection it is interesting to learn that in England the speed mania is dying out. High-powered cars are no longer in great demand and motoring has become a matter of course. That's about the tendency here.

If we may judge from some recent utterances in the British press, the only people who do not know the naval and military needs of the country are those whose business it is to know them, and if things are as bad as these writers would have us think, there is no use for the overseas dominions to go to the help of the mother country, for her case is beyond any remedy that we can offer. Happily, these Jeremiads are simply the result of political biliousness, and every nation in Europe knows it.

The following fishing party is now in Quebec: the Duke of Leeds, Viscount Latimer, Baron Osborne, Earl of Danby, Viscount Osborne of Dunblane, the Marquis of Carmarthen, Baron Godolphin and Prince of the Holy Roman Empire. The party's other name is George, and the pictures of him in the papers show him to be a rather good looking fellow. He was interviewed in New York of course, but he said he had come out to America to catch fish and not to air his opinions on questions that he did not pretend to know anything more about than anyone else.

Dr. H'Anish is an apostle of the sun-worshippers who has been lecturing in Montreal. The doctor has not much use for people who eat meat. He says if a person eats a pound of meat a day his body substance will be beef and his mentality will be something like a cow's. "Your spirit will be beefy and your actions will be beefy" is one way he puts it. He laughs at the physicians for saying that fish is good for the brain and says: "Where is the logic or the brains or the common-sense in all your meat-eating theories? Your doctors state that fish is good brain food because it contains phosphorus. Now, let us see how this works out in practice. Go to any old established fishing village where for generations the people have eaten nothing but fish. You will find them earning about $1.60 a day."

Famine is raging in certain parts of Russia. In the province of Saratov hundreds of peasants are stark naked, having bartered every thing they owned for food. The Bashkir peasants are said to stretch themselves on the floor of their huts in rows and wait for death. There seems to be no remedy for the conditions existing in some parts of that country, for year after year the soil refuses to yield a crop. Some time ago the suggestion was advanced that the soil had become "poisoned" by a series of calamitous years in which starvation, typhoid and other evils prevailed. Whatever may be the cause and whatever may be the remedy, if there is any, the condition of the people in the affected districts is awful beyond description.

The public will support the action of the school board for exonerating Mr. King in the matter of the chastisement of the O'Neil boys, and it seems unfortunate that the case was not presented before the police magistrate so as to bring out the facts as they now appear. At least we assume they were not so presented, for we cannot suppose that any magistrate would impose a fine under such circumstances. It is imperative that discipline in the schools shall be maintained, and if boys will make themselves as obnoxious as these lads appear to have done, they must be punished accordingly. If under such circumstances a severe chastisement may not be inflicted, the end of discipline would be at hand. No boy should be so chastised as to be more than temporarily hurt, and that is all that seems to have been inflicted in this case. The father of the other lad, who said his boy deserved all he got showed a great deal of sound common sense.

What purport to be statistics of Solomon's temple are going the rounds of the press, and they may be worthy of mention, with some passing comment. The size of the temple was: Length, 90 feet; breadth, 30 feet; height, 45 feet. It is alleged that the gold, silver, jewels and timber used in its construction were worth upwards of $51,000,000,000, and the cost of the labor in constructing the building is put at $70,000,000. We look upon these figures as absurd. The value of the gold vessels in the temple is stated at $2,716,000,000. Now, putting an ounce of gold at $20, we have for the value of a ton of gold $640,000, or, for gold vessels alone, 4214 tons. These vessels would be hollow and of very irregular outline, with handles and feet. If we assume that a ton weight of them would be equivalent to a ton measurement as used in shipping, we would have a mass which would fill the whole temple and another building half as large. Where should we put the silver vessels, the cost of which is put at two and a half billions, and how could $11,726,480,000 worth of stone and timber have been used in a building of the dimensions mentioned? It is very clear that some one has done a lot of very wild figuring.

WHAT THE WORLD'S PRESS IS SAYING

Socialism in China.

In China the land, which is held in very small areas, has been from time immemorial the chief source of public revenue. A poll tax also used to be levied, but early in the eighteenth century it as abolished and a permanent land tax was established, the amount payable on each section of land being recorded in the title deed or grant. The tax is believed to yield about £19,000,000 at the present time, though the amount paid into the exchequer by the officials is less than £5,000,000. Sun Yat-Sen has in this land tax a good basis for his operations. National ownership of railroads and mines is already an ideal of the most enlightened section of the Chinese people and free trade will be a comparatively simple matter in a country that has no need to protect her industries. The real danger of the programme, from the point of view of the white races, is not that it will frighten capital away, but that it will make China an irresistible competitor in many industrial fields.—Lyttelton Times (N.Z.)

Sir Henniker Heaton

The mails and the messages are the shuttles ever weaving day and night "on the roaring loom of time" the fabric of the world's beliefs and opinions. Most of all can they determine its texture and its hue amongst those who read and speak the same tongue. Our fellow-subjects in the Britains beyond the seas have taken out with them their share of the common mental and moral stock of the race. That is the true foundation, and the only secure foundation, of all our imperial hopes. But it is only by daily additions to it and modifications of it that it fulfils the law of its nature and slowly expands from decade to decade. The mails are the great instrument for rendering that growth uniform in all our world-wide communities of British blood and British speech. It is the incessant interchange of books and of newspapers and of letters between all classes, and not least amongst the poorest classes of these communities, which maintains and fosters that immeasurable and august moral force—the imperial opinion of the British peoples. The reforms which Sir Henniker Heaton has carried out have done much to preserve and propagate that opinion, and this is the invaluable service he has rendered to his countrymen.—London Times.

An English Girl

An English girl will take part in the Olympic games at Stockholm next month. This young lady has already achieved honors in the arena for her extraordinary horsemanship—a phrase that may sound like an Irish bull, but horsemanship is an awkward term to use in speaking of the lady's prowess. Her fame is already international. Last year she scared the police of Madison Square by riding an intractable mount at the horse show held in New York. From a modern standpoint when cabinet ministers hats are thrown "on the green" by militant suffragettes, and Miss Sylvia Pankhurst has become a heroine because she has eluded a constable with a warrant, these things may be all right and proper, and of good report. But what of 'Olympus itself, and the high gods? What will Jove do? Will he nod—as common report hath it he does in times of doubt, difficulty and indecision? Are there no horsemen in England who will rise up and spare the gods this bitter humiliation? If not, then on the sacred top of Olympus itself will some irate female preach the equality of the sexes in horsemanship as in tennis and ping pong, and Jove will be dethroned, and in his place will reign one of his better halves.—Calgary Herald.

Lloyd George and "The City"

To a chancellor like Mr. Lloyd George "the City" is the enemy. Let all these things be remembered now that the ministry stands on its defence against a clear and straightforward accusation of failure in a vital particular of its duty toward the people. The offence is no isolated or fortuitous one. It is the last of a long line, and it proceeds not from hasty and ill-considered impulse, but from a fixed attitude of mind, an unalterable policy of self-regard. The attempt will certainly be made to obscure the issue with words intended to thrust the Unionist party into the position of enemies of trade unionism as such. Mr. Austen Chamberlain and those who follow him will know how to anticipate and meet such devices. The issue is plain and straight. Ministers have only to be held firmly to it to be put to confusion undisguisable.—London Telegraph.

Industrial Freedom

It is sometimes said, especially by foreign observers, that this is the first generation in England which has not loved liberty, says The London Times. That may not be quite a fair description of the present mood of very many. But in view of the rage for repression and prohibition and interference in a variety of forms, it would seem not to be very far from the truth. We touch fundamentals when the liberty of men to engage their services on what terms they think fit is involved; and what at bottom is the present dispute between the employers and strikers than a fight as to liberty? The true nature of the struggle is often veiled by ambiguous phrases or is obscured by talk about "blacklegs" or other "strike-breakers" and the use of other nicknames. Those who interfere with the sale of labor maintain that they do so for the ultimate good of those whom they would control; they rarely openly deny a workman's right to take what wages he thinks fit; they slur over the fact that such is the effect of their conduct. Even employers sometimes try to hide from themselves the gravity of the issues involved; they treat as isolated episodes, what may be part of a well-planned campaign, the objective of which is the destruction of individual freedom. In other ages men fought for freedom of speech, or for the maintenance of constitutional safeguards of liberty, or for religious freedom. England, as it happens, was the scene of many of these struggles, and the issue was, on the whole, favorable to liberty. Today there is going on a similar struggle as to the liberty of men to dispose of their labor in their own way. The issue may be smothered in fine phrases or complicated by the introduction of other matters. None the less is the issue substantially whether a minority may accept the wages and terms of employment which they are ready to take, or whether they must be bound by the wishes and the interests of the majority.

A notice has been issued by well-known firms of shipowners offering employment on favorable terms with allowances for overtime and special work. There can be little doubt—in fact, it is one of the lessons to be deduced from recent strikes—that there are very many persons who would gladly accept such terms. On the skirts of almost all unskilled occupations is a residuum of available labor eager to get employment. The choice is surely for them; not for Mr. Tillett or Mr. Gosling, or any one else who says that he knows best what is for their good. Mr. Hobhouse, speaking at East Bristol, said that "if a man wished to work he should be free to work, and if he wished to withhold his work there was no reason why he should not." This is sound sense; but it does not mean much unless the man desirous of working is certain of effective protection. Now the fact is that, as we pointed out on Saturday, there is no certainty of this; in many disputes the "free laborer" incurs more risk than he would in an uncivilized country. He may be exposed to violence and maltreatment. He is certain to run the gauntlet of rough abuse. He has to pass to his work through lines or groups of pickets not really stationed to give information, but to exercise within limits intimidation. If he is deprived of employment the probability is that he will have no redress, at all events none against the union, which alone could pay. And even many of those who talk of liberty as if it were, in other matters than labor, a priceless blessing, speak of the non-unionist as one who, not falling into line with the majority of his fellow-workmen, being a "blackleg" or a strike-breaker," deserves no better fate.

The air is full of schemes for recasting the relations of capital and labor and giving to wage-earners new rights and a position of greater security. But at the threshold lies the question whether the individual worker is to be really free to make his own bargain or whether it is to be made for him. It stands to reason that he will often see the advantages of united action. The victories thus achieved are patent. "The collective contract" in some form has become in many trades a necessity in the view of both masters and men. But in the course of every strike the case of men whose work requires little training, there comes up the question, may the majority coerce the minority, may the unionist drive away the non-unionist? Few openly say that he may. But very many answer so indistinctly this simple question, or clog their answer with so many conditions and qualifications, and express so strongly disapprobation of the conduct of the non-unionist, that for practical purposes they might as well be avowed advocates of coercion. Today, as so often in past struggles in English history, the central question is one of liberty. Some slight advance is made when the issue is defined and faced. Those who hold that all unorganized labor is so much an evil that any means, coercion included, are justifiable in order to put it down, take up an intelligible position. We know what they mean when they say "We do not believe in liberty in regard to labor," which is more than can be said of many who, repeating the old formula of Liberalism as to liberty, act as if they no longer believed in it.

SCHOOL BOARD FULLY EXONERATES TEACHER

After Inquiry It Is Found That Mr. Nelson King, of Boy's Central, Did Not Thrash Boy Excessively

"Resolved, that after a full inquiry into all the facts connected with the depositing of fertilizer in some of the classrooms at the Boys' Central School and the punishment administered to Harold and George O'Neill by Mr. Nelson King, after due consideration of the same, this board is of opinion that the said Harold and George O'Neill were two of the chief offenders in the case and also told untruths in connection with the same, and, inasmuch as the home discipline of the said boys has been lax, it was imperative, both in the interest of the offenders and for the maintenance of school discipline, that some severe punishment be meted out to them;

"And whereas a thin rubber strap, weighing only four and a half ounces was the instrument used and no serious bodily harm inflicted, the provocation justified the punishment administered by Mr. King.

"This board is also of opinion that Mr. Nelson King erred inasmuch as he did not tell the boys before the whipping what they were to be punished for, and that this resolution be spread on the minutes of the board."

The above resolution was passed yesterday afternoon by the board of school trustees sitting as a committee to investigate the case of Mr. Nelson King, who had been convicted in the police court on the charge of having assaulted George and Harry O'Neill pupils in the Central school, and fined $20. There is some doubt as to whether the resolution passed unanimously. Trustee Staneland, on the question being put in the first instance, voting in the negative, and later not voting at all. Trustee Staneland's attitude on the matter, however, was disclosed by his suggesting that Mr. King be urged to appeal from the decision of the magistrate and that the expenses of such an appeal should be borne by the school board.

There was a large attendance of school teachers and spectators during the progress of the adjourned meeting, and the liveliest interest was taken in the proceedings. Mr. H. A. MacLean, K. C., was present on behalf of Mr. King. Mr. O'Neill, though an invitation was sent to him to be present, refrained from doing so.

On the meeting being opened and the board going into committee of the whole, with trustee Hall in the chair, Trustee Staneland called Mr. King to ask him what he meant by a statement in a previous examination that he had whipped the boy "to the limit." To this Mr. King replied that by that he had meant "until he saw that the desired result had been obtained."

Truste Staneland seemed dissatisfied with this explanation.

Miss Gibson, a member of the teaching staff, was called to tell of the experience which she had had with the O'Neill boys while they were under her care. She had found them very unruly and had repeatedly punished them, on one occasion having "blackened" the wrists of Harold O'Neill while trying to pull him from under a desk where he had hidden. Mrs. O'Neill, the mother of the children, had approved of the whippings she had administered and she had been very materially assisted by her in her care of the children at school.

To Trustee Staneland she admitted that in her opinion the boys were so unruly that it might exert a salutary influence if they were removed from school, though she would hesitate recommending such a drastic course.

Trustee Staneland felt that it would be well to go at this stage into the whole question of the discipline among the teachers, but the board felt that this would be outside the bounds of the inquiry.

When the matter had been discussed to some further length, Mr. MacLean was asked to address the board and he did so at some length. His chief points were that discipline must be maintained in the schools unless the educational system of the country was to be put out of business, that the evidence showed that Mr. King had not sought to punish the boys of his own volition, but had only done so after there had been an investigation into their offences; that he had acted on the direct advice of his superiors; that he had punished the boys in the usual manner and in the usual place, and that no injury had resulted therefrom. The whole thing he characterized a "tempest in a teapot."

Trustee Hall then moved the above resolution, which was seconded by Trustee Riddel. The mover spoke at some length, emphasizing the necessity of maintaining discipline in the schools and contending that he was quite convinced from all the evidence that Mr. King had not acted improperly.

Trustee Staneland urged that the reference in the resolution to the lack of proper home training be eliminated, but this was not consented to and the vote was taken with the above result.

BODY FOUND IN LAKE

Decomposed Remains of an Unknown Are Discovered Floating in Sooke Lake

The badly decomposed body of a man was found at dusk on Thursday evening floating in Sooke lake, some distance north of the camp of the Westholme Lumber company, situated at the south end of the lake. Men engaged at the camp made the discovery, which was reported to the provincial police authorities, and Special Constable Kidd left the city yesterday with an undertaker to secure the body.

The remains were practically nude and in such condition that any marks which might have led to identification are obliterated. No report has been made to the police authorities concerning the disappearance of any resident of that district. A search will be made along the shores of the lake in the hope that the clothing of the unknown may be discovered. An inquest will probably be held, but until the body arrives in the city no arrangements for the investigation will be made. The body was evidently in the water for a month or two.

INJURED IN RUNAWAY

Speeding Motor Car Startles Horse, Which Bolts, Throwing Occupants of Vehicle to Roadway

Startled by the noise of a passing motor car the horse attached to a buggy in which Mrs. Robert David and her 2-year-old child were seated, bolted along the Craigflower road last evening at 9 o'clock and, the vehicle overturning, the occupants were thrown to the roadway with such force that Mrs. David suffered a fracture of the right arm, while the baby fell in front of the wheels, one of which passed across its chest and face causing serious injuries.

With Mr. Robert David, the woman and child were driving to their home on the new reserve. When near home Mr. David stopped the buggy at the edge of the roadway while he visited a friend, Mr. John Silver, residing nearby. It was while he was away from the buggy that the motor car approached at a high rate of speed in the direction of the city. The driver made no attempt to slow down as he passed the horse nor did he stop when he saw the animal near preparatory to bolting. The speed at which the car was being driven, coupled with the clouds of dust raised, prevented Mrs. David from securing its number.

Mr. David hastened back to the city and, securing a hack, returned to the scene of the accident and brought his wife and child into the St. Joseph's hospital, where Dr. George Hall attended them. Beyond the broken limb and a bad shaking up Mrs. David is not seriously injured but the child is in a critical condition.

PURLOINED FURNITURE

Edward Urquhart Adopted Illegal Methods in Effort to Furnish His Rooming Houses

Had it not been for the opportune arrival of Detective Murray just as Edward Urquhart was in the act of purloining a door mat early yesterday morning, the property of a resident on Amelia street, near Pandora avenue, Urquhart would doubtless ere this have added largely to the stock of furniture which, the police believe, he has been gathering by unlawful means for the past two weeks wherewith to furnish two rooming houses he has rented.

Yesterday morning Urquhart pleaded guilty to the theft of the door mat, and was remanded until Tuesday next for sentence. But yesterday afternoon detectives visited one of the rooming houses, at 1518 Cook street, and in a search through the premises discovered a quantity of linoleum, window blind, chairs, paint, etc., which of late have been reported stolen. He will be arraigned on other charges of theft when he next appears in the police court.

When arrested, Urquhart, whose correct name is believed to be Farquhar, stated that he came from Tacoma about three weeks ago. He asserted that the mat he was taking when arrested at 2 o'clock yesterday morning was his own property, and that he was merely taking it from one of his rooming houses to the other, but afterwards he admitted that the rooming houses were at 745 Pandora avenue and 1518 Cook street. The furniture located at the last address belonged to Mr. Birt, whose residence adjoins the Pandora avenue rooming house of the prisoner.

Last Thursday Mr. Birt was moving, and left overnight a quantity of household articles in the house, intending to return the next day and move them to his new residence. During the night the stuff was stolen. In addition, a quantity of paint and oils, the property of Mr. H. Harkness, painter, was discovered in the prisoner's possession. The stolen property was identified yesterday by the owners.

Urquhart's wife, when questioned, maintained that the goods belonged to the prisoner, who had brought them with him when he came from Tacoma three weeks ago.

SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR SUMMER VACATION

After Two Terms Spent in Hard Work, Boys and Girls Learn Their Standing and Forsake Their Books

With but few exceptions the Victoria public schools closed for the mid-summer holidays with but little ceremony. The children were assembled, the promotion lists read, the honor rolls presented by the principal, and the boys and girls dismissed for the holidays. In the case of the graded schools, the senior pupils were finishing their entrance examinations, the results of which will be given out at the opening of the autumn school term.

At the North Ward school about fifty of the parents were present at the breaking up. The children, of whom there are now 550 on the registers, assembled, and sang "O Canada." Miss Day, on behalf of her mother, Mrs. R. S. Day, presented the badges to the Coronation Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire. Agreater number of children have been enrolled in this chapter in this school than in any other in the city.

The honor rolls were presented by Mr. W. J. Dowler, city clerk, and the principal, Mr. J. M. Campbell, distributed the prizes won by the school at the sports on Field Day with the exception of the cup for baseball, carried off by the senior pupils. A number of patriotic songs varied the proceedings.

At the close Mr. Campbell thanked the pupils for their good behaviour during the past year. No pupil had committed any serious offence. The boys and girls were especially complimented on the fact that they had taken such excellent care of the school buildings. Neither inside nor out had the slightest wilful damage been done. Not even a scratch or a mark was in evidence.

Not only the pupils, but the parents, were gratified by this report, which the principal made with pardonable pride.

A large number of parents were present at the closing exercises of the Sir James Douglas school, which has only been opened a year, but which is already filled with pupils. Inspector J. S. Gordon presented the honor rolls to the winners. The children were assembled in front of the building, as there is no assembly room here.

A pleasing feature of this school closing was the presentation to Miss Laura E. Blackwell, who is soon to be married, of a beautiful silver fern bowl by her little pupils. The teachers also presented their friend and colleague with a handsome chafing dish. During her residence in Victoria, Miss Blackwell has gained the esteem and affection of all who know her.

The Rock Bay school closed for the holidays at 10.30 yesterday morning. The children assembled in the principal's room, where Trustee P. J. Riddell addressed them, complimenting them on their neat appearance, and Miss Hardie and Miss Sherwood on the display of written work, which he thought excellent. Mr. Riddell, after a few words about the empire, presented the badges to the Children of Empire, and read the promotion lists.

There was no public closing at the Kingston street school, but the children were assembled to hear the promotion lists read. Mr. R. L. Drury's prize for the head of the school was divided between Erna Lorenz and George Allan. Attention was called to the fact that the five children of Captain Owen attending the school had not missed a day during the year.

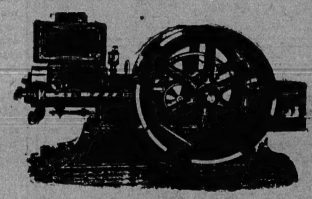
Waterloo Boy Actual Brake Test



Gasoline Engines Actual Brake Test

EACH WATERLOO BOY Gasoline Engine is submitted to an actual brake test to see that the engine will develop the horse power as rated. This test is prolonged to discover any defective material or workmanship in the engine. A record of the test can be furnished so that each customer may know the actual brake test of the engine he buys.

We also test our engine in reference to fuel consumption. Each engine is sent out adjusted so that it is ready to run when uncrated. We use great thoroughness and care in testing our engines.

THE MIXER produces a perfect mixture of gasoline and air, gives the greatest power from the least gasoline. The suction of the piston draws the charge of gasoline mixed with air, into the cylinder. IT WORKS BETTER THAN ANY PUMP EVER MADE.

THE GOVERNOR is the centrifugal type, driven by gears positive in action, extremely sensitive, controls perfectly the speed of engine, regulates fuel supply to closest point of economy, saves batteries, igniter and fuel. The parts are few, simple and interchangeable. Can always be depended upon. Our governor is our great ECONOMIZER.

THE OPEN JACKET requires only from two to three gallons of water per horse power. Old style, from 20 to 30 gallons. It is very compact, enables you to make the engine frost-proof by using oil in hopper and greatly saves fuel. No system of cooling a gasoline engine is as satisfactory as the open jacket.

THE SPEED LEVER works on the same principle as a throttle on a locomotive, by moving the speed lever you can increase or decrease speed of the engine from 50 to 75 revolutions. This can be done while the engine is running. It works in close conjunction with the governor in saving the fuel. [illegible] count our speed lever one of the SPECIAL and most valuable features of our engine.

WE HAVE ALSO WATER TANKS AND PUMPS. WATER SYSTEMS INSTALLED.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Oak Bay Permits—A building permit has been issued by the Oak Bay authorities to Mr. John Sinclair for a house of three rooms on Crescent road at a cost of $300; also to Mr. J. McInnes for a seven-room house on Bourchier street, to cost $1900.

Building Permits—Building permits were issued yesterday by the building inspector to Mr. F. G. Fox, for a dwelling to be erected on Cecilia street, to cost $1,800 to Mr. William Bredell, dwelling on Bank street, $3,000; to Mrs. A. B. Jackson, dwelling on Gladstone avenue, $3,00.

Smoke, But No Fire—A passer-by seeing smoke issuing from a restaurant in the building adjoining, yesterday morning, became alarmed at what he thought was an outbreak of fire in the two-storey brick building at 580 Johnson street, and sent in an alarm of fire. The services of the brigade were not required.

Fix Date for Vote on Bylaws—The date for the submission to the ratepayers of the new city hall loan and school loan bylaws was fixed at a special meeting of the city council called yesterday, for Thursday, July 11. The first measure provided for the expenditure of $500,000 on the erection of a new civic centre in the Pandora avenue gore, between Cook and Chambers streets; the second for the expenditure of $175,000 for school purposes.

Run Down by Motor Car—Run down by a motor car driven by Mr. Frank M. Helm yesterday morning at 11:40 o'clock, Thomas Hunt, aged eight years, residing at 1135 Johnson street, was injured on Blanchard street, near the Y. M. C. A. building. Constable Brogan, who was near at the time, administered first aid to the boy and had him conveyed to Dr. George Hall's office, whence he was taken to the Royal Jubilee hospital, suffering from concussion of the brain.

Arbitrators Visit Site—Next week the arbitration proceedings to fix the value which the city will pay for the forty-seven acres of land required as a portion of the site of the Humpback reservoir, will be commenced. The property is owned by Mr. McKnight, who claims $35,250, while the city has offered him $7,650. Water Commissioner Raymur, City Solicitor Robertson and the arbitrators visited the property yesterday morning. The arbitrators are Mr. J. J. Shallcross, selected by the city; Mr. Cox, by Mr. McKnight, and Mr. Robert Brett, third arbitrator.

Crusade Against Rubbish—Starting on Tuesday morning, members of the fire department will institute a thorough inspection of buildings and premises in the downtown district and owners or occupants of premises where rubbish is permitted to be deposited, will be ordered forthwith to remove the same. In fact a general cleaning up will be ordered. Rear yards, cellars and warehouses must be cleaned, and the inspection will continue until Fire Chief Davis is satisfied that the regulations relating to the keeping of all premises free from rubbish and debris, are being complied with.

Nightwatchman to Blame—It was the nightwatchman and not the caretaker at Smith's Hill reservoir, who recently permitted the water in the eastern half of the reservoir to overflow the division wall, thus allowing the flooding of the floor of the western half, and delaying the work of asphalting the joints in the walls. The offending employee has been dismissed. The caretaker has nothing to do with the regulation of the flow of water into the reservoir. Mr. A. E. Foreman, assistant to City Engineer Rust, stated yesterday that no defects have been found in the main feed pipe to the reservoir, that being a steel riveted pipe, but it was found necessary to go over the joints in the overflow pipe, a tile piping, and cement the defective joints.

Aletha Studio Prize-Giving—The pupils of the Alétha studio of music gave a concert in St. John's church schoolroom last evening in connection with their annual summer prize-giving under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Norrish. A large audience composed of relatives and friends of the children enjoyed a very pleasant little programme of recitations, pianoforte numbers, etc., winding up with a short play. During the evening the prizes and diplomas were presented by Mr. A. E. Watson, while a presentation of a clock was also made to Miss Ohlson who helped the pupils with the play. Among the best features of the programme were the opening song sung by all the pupils, "If We Were You and You Were Us," the lantern and flag drill in which the national colors of most of the nations of the world were used, and the little play, entitled "Not So Bad After All." Among the children taking part were the Misses Wallace, Ida Reese, Margaret Harris, Masters Dawson Norrish, Graham Harris and Charlie Cutt. Masters Arthur Plows and Lloyd Campbell ably performed the duties of ushers.

School Prize-Giving Held—The annual prize-giving and closing exercises of Mr. K. C. Symons' school for young boys was held yesterday afternon in the grounds of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rattenbury, Beach drive, and proved a most pleasant function. On this occasion for the first time the boys wore their school colors of dark blue and black. The prizes were presented by Ven. Archdeacon Scriven, who afterwards gave the boys a fatherly little address. The remainder of the programme consisted of three excellent numbers which were much appreciated. These were the old song, "Ten Little Nigger Boys," sung in English, French and Latin; a Swedish drill, and the trial scene from "The Merchant of Venice," which was very well acted, the boys wearing beautiful costumes. Among the donors of prizes were Mr. C. A. Holland, Mr. A. S. Barton, Mr. M. B. Jackson, and Mr. H. G. Wilson. Those present were afterwards entertained at tea by Mrs. Rattenbury, who during the afternoon was presented with a beautiful bouquet. The school will open again for the Christmas term at the end of August in its new quarters, corner Saratoga avenue and Pleasant street.

Fined for Fighting—Fred Hogan and Harry Chaplin were fined $10 in the city police court yesterday on being convicted of fighting in the public street.

Poultry Meeting—A meeting of the Victoria Poultry association was held last night at labor hall when a number of local experts gathered and exchanged much interesting information in regard to poultry doings in the locality.

Motor Car Regulations—The Oak Bay police continue to enforce the regulations relating to the lighting and speed of motor cars and motor cycles on the streets within the municipality, and offenders in this respect were mulcted in fines ranging from $5 to $10 at the police court on Oak Bay avenue yesterday afternoon.

Bible Class Banquet—The members of the young men's Bible class of the Metropolitan Methodist church Sunday school entertained at their annual banquet last evening in the Alexandra club cafe, coupling the function with a farewell to Mr. Stanley Holling, one of their members who is leaving town shortly for the east. The chair was taken by the class teacher, Mr. Will Maynard, and during the evening speeches were made by the Sunday school superintendent, Mr. H. J. Knott; the assistant superintendent, Mr. E. H. Brown, and the superintendent, Mr. H. Siddall. Other speakers included Master Neil McDiamid, Master Emsley Yeo and the guest of honor, the latter making a short farewell speech. The evening closed with the Mispah benediction.

Fire at Cobble Hill—In a spectacular fire, which occurred on Thursday night, the barns and outhouses of Mr. Izaac Dougan's Cobble Hill ranch were completely destroyed. When the blaze was first noticed it had gained considerable headway and it was impossible to stem its progress. Everything within the immediate vicinity was wiped out and it looked, for a time, as though it would be even more serious. In fact the residents of the district telephoned to Duncan for assistance and the entire populace is reported to have been prepared to prevent a general conflagration were one really threatened. Fortunately, when the fire broke out, the barn doors were open and the greater part of the stock escaped. Several head, however, were burned to death. The blaze is believed to have been of an incendiary character.

School Closing—Since the close of last term, Miss Gulland, who conducts the Yverdon Kindergarten, near the corner of Stanley avenue, has extended the scope of her work. She has now a preparatory class into which the little people may graduate, or which will accommodate older brothers and sisters. To assist her, Miss Gulland has engaged two young ladies, Miss Holdcroft and Miss Skerry. The children had, at the close of the term, many excellent specimens of weaving and modelling to show their friends. Some work in paper twisting, as a practical training, for work in geometry, showed a skill which older students might envy. Even more interesting and not less instructive was a small museum in which children had collected birds' nests, shells, birds' eggs and a great number of other interestng specimens, some of which had come from other countries. Here they kept their clay models, representing a variety of objects which the pupils had copied from the original without the least help from their teachers. No public closing was held and the Kindergarten was dismissed for the holidays, after going through their customary exercises. One wondered whether these would really be more delightful than the days spent in the bright little schoolrooms.

Diocesan W. A Meeting—The regular monthly meeting of the Diocesan board of the W. A. was held yesterday afternoon in Christ Church Cathedral schoolroom, with the president, Mrs. Luxton, in the chair. There was a good attendance of members. Among the matters that came up for discussion was a letter recently received from the central board, asking the local diocesan board to increase its offerings to missions. As, however, the letter did not explain very clearly just what was the amount needed, it was decided to postpone any action upon the matter until further word was received. A life membership was conferred upon the literature secretary, Mrs. Dickson, by the Cathedral branch. The feature of the afternoon was the interesting address given by Mrs. Corker, whose husband is superintendent of the Indian Boys' school at Alert Bay. The speaker has spent the past nineteen years at that point, and her account of work done among the Indian children was listened to with much pleasure. The school started with four boys, and had a very hard time of it at first, as whenever the boys seemed to be getting on, their parents had an awkward habit of appearing on the scene and taking them home. The school, however, is now full, and several of the boys have sat for the high school examinations. The speaker also referred to the new Girls' school, the building of which has been put up by the Indian department to be managed by the Church of England in this diocese. Tea was served at the close of the meeting, after which the board adjourned until September.

NEW HOSPITAL MUCH NEEDED IN VICTORIA

At Annual Meeting of Royal Jubilee Hospital Subscribers the Matter Was Discussed —Record of Year's Work

At the twenty-second annual meeting of the directors of the Jubilee Hospital held yesterday in the council chamber of the city hall, the president, Mr. D. E. Campbell, made a strong appeal for the erection of a new hospital and expressed his regret at the apathy of the general public as evidenced by the small attendance at this annual meeting. The reports showed that while there was, last year, a lack of accommodation, the hospital was managed with all possible efficiency and economy. The following is the directors' report:

Directors' Report

The directors have great pleasure in placing before the public their report of the work of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital during the past year and the twenty-second in its history.

The year has been one of strenuous work for all members of the staff as the hospital has been practically filled during the whole time to its utmost capacity; the total number of patients treated being 1,460, an increase of 208 over the preceding year and the greatest in the history of the hospital, the daily average number of patients being 81.32 and the average number of days made by each patient 21.

In spite of the conditions under which this larger amount of work has been performed and taking into account that during certain periods of the year the public wards have been considerably overcrowded, everything has worked smoothly and well and the results have been as good as in any previous year.

The demand for beds in the wards and moderately priced rooms has been greater than ever and for some time past it has been found impossible to meet this demand with the present accommodation.

The directors wish to tender their thanks to the Women's Auxiliary, the Daughters of Pity and all others assisting them for their great effort during the recent campaign to meet this ever-increasing difficulty, by which the splendid sum of $105,000 has been realized. This sum will require to be considerably augmented before the building can be proceeded with, and it is to be hoped that there will be no relaxation of the efforts of the friends of the hospital until there are sufficient funds at our disposal to build a hospital worty of its name and of the city of Victoria.

The directors desire to express their thanks to all generous donors for their response to this appeal.

As will be noticed by the treasurer's report, the hospital's liability to the bank has been considerably reduced, showing that strict economy has been practised consistent with the best interests of he work. There has been a slight increase in the amounts donated and subscribed but it is hoped that the inhabitants of Victoria and districts will realize the wants of the hospital and supply the additional funds that are urgently needed for current expenses.

In view of the great effort now being made to build a new hospital it is needless to call the attention of the public to the many deficiencies and requirements of the present building which has been reported on from year to year and still call urgently for attention.

Repairs and Improvements

During the year no extensive repairs or improvements have been done with the exception of a chimney and heating apparatus for the convalescent and children's ward.

Two steel chairs for the use of convalescent patients have been kindly furnished by the Women's Auxiliary, which are very acceptable.

A new sterilizer has been purchased for use in the operating department. This has given great satisfaction and has filled a great want.

The furniture and three rooms of the Strathcona wing have been renovated, for which the thanks of the board are due to the Daughters of Pity, Mrs. James Dunsmuir and Mrs. Henry Croft.

The work of the X-ray department has been considerably increased, and the number of patients attending for photographs and treatment and the excellent results obtained do more than justify this extra expense.

A considerable amount of the medical officer's time is taken up with this work and it may be found necessary in the near future to employ an X-ray specialist who will devote the whole of his time to it.

The directors decided during the year that a laboratory for bacteriological and pathological work in connection with the hospital was necessary.

Owing to the want of proper accommodation and lack of funds a room had to be furnished on the top storey of the administration block.

The drawbacks to this position are its inaccessibility, shortage of water supply and the distance away from the operating centres.

In spite of this, however, much good work has been done by Dr. Home as his report will show.

Resident Medical Staff

Dr. Miller completed his year's engagement as assistant medical officer, but very kindly extended his time to coincide with the advent of Dr. Thomas, who recently graduated at Montreal.

Dr. Miller will commence practice in this city and the directors take this opportunity of wishing him every success.

The directors thank the visiting medical staff, the resident medical officer (Dr. Hasell), and all others who, by their untiring attention to duty, do so much to promote the welfare of the patients under their charge.

The directors also desire to place on record their appreciation of the work of Miss Macdonald, the superintendent of nurses, and of the nursing staff.

To the Women's Auxiliary, the Daughters of Pity, and the King's Daughters the directors would extend their most hearty appreciation of the work done by them. This year the work has been greater than ever and no words can express the thanks of the board for the great assistance they have rendered.

To the donors named in the financial statement the directors express their gratitude for the kindness shown in their efforts to alleviate the sufferings of the sick and needy.

They also desire to thank the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir Ltd.) for their generosity in continuing to supply coal at a very reduced rate, the fuel bill being much less than it would have been had current rates been paid.

The thanks of the directors are also due to Mr. J. S. H. Matson for copies of The Daily Colonist, and the Times Publishing Co. for free copies of The Victoria Times supplied to the wards.

To the donors of flowers, magazines, books, toys, etc., the directors extend their thanks.

Treasurer's Statement

The treasurer's report states that the income for the past year was $59,033.30, and the expenditure $58,288.21. The revenue showed an increase over the previous year of $10,803.55, and the expenditure was greater by $4,209.72. A singular feature of the report was the statement that the average cost per patient, per diem, was $1.96, which was 14c. less than last year. The larger total expenditure was caused by the increase in salaries and the greater number of patient.

The reports of the medical officer shows that there have been 1,387 in-patients and 73 out-patients, a total of 1,460 treated during the year. The total days' stay was 29,682, an increase of 4,047 days over the previous year. The report stated that the wards were greatly overcrowded, and emphasized the need of an infirmary and a women's anti-tuberculosis ward.

The establishment of a pathological and bacteriological laboratory was mentioned as of immense benefit to the hospital, and Dr. Hasell recommended the appointment of a graduate nurse as superior on each of the blocks of the hospital.

Dr. Horne, the pathologist, gave a full report of the work of the laboratory, and showed that the equipment left much to be desired.

The matron presented a brief report of the hospital training school, in which she said that the present staff of nurses numbered thirty-three. Twenty-five applications for admission had been received, eighteen had been taken on probation, and thirteen of these were accepted as pupil nurses. The members of the graduating class for the year are Miss L. Boyd, Miss C. L. Talbot, Miss M. R. Gordon, Miss E. McLean, Miss M. Walker, Miss C. Younghusband, Miss E. Beatty and Miss W. M. C. Orr.

The reports were all adopted, and the meeting proceeded to the election of officers. The directors for the ensuing year are Mrs. C. Rhodes, Messrs. J. A. Mara, Alex. Wilson and Simon Leiser.

The president said he was very sorry to see by the small number present that the Victoria public took but little interest in hospital matters. There was the greatest necessity for an active propaganda for a new hospital. It was not too much to say that the hospital which was once a source of pride to Victoria, has become a back number.

Will Ask Public Grant

Mr. Campbell said he was proud that the ladies' auxiliary had collected $105,000, but he hoped they would not rest satisfied with their efforts. There would be need of all the contributions of the friends of the hospital before a sufficient sum was raised. The directors proposed to ask the city council to submit a hospital bylaw for $200,000 to the people, and the speaker was confident that the sum would be raised. Victoria had grown to be a large city. Improvements were going on in every direction. An essential feature of a modern city was a large and up-to-date hospital. The reputation of Victoria's doctors was very high, but they could not do the best work unless they had a public hospital with the finest equipment. In the old days people came to the Jubilee hospital, not only from all parts of the island, but from the mainland. Now this source of revenue, not only to the hospital, but to the city, was lost. At present the hospital could provide but for two classes of patients, those who could pay high prices and those who could pay nothing. There was a demand for moderately priced rooms, which, under present circumstances could not be satisfied.

Every friend of the hospital should work for the bylaw, and it was sure to be passed, but it would take hard work. The government in supplementing the sums contributed by the cities of Nelson and Vernon with an equal grant had set a precedent, which he was confident would be followed in the case of the city of Victoria.

Mrs. Hasell, on behalf of the Woman's Auxiliary, promised the most active and earnest support in the future as in the past.

Mr. Simon Leiser complimented the President on his excellent speech, and on the good work he had done for the hospital since he had been president.

Mr. Wilson also spoke in high terms of the services of the president. He regretted that the doctors did not take a greater interest in hospital affairs, and alluded to the great assistance afforded the directors by the late Dr. Davie. Mr. Wilson advocated the immediate erection of the maternity ward, for which the money had been collected. It was greatly needed.

The president thanked his colleagues for their appreciation, and said that for business reasons he would prefer to resign his position.

Mr. Mara, Mr. Leiser and Mr. Day protested against such action. This matter was left to be decided at a directors' meeting, and the meeting adjourned.

Teaching a Dog To Do Tricks

The training of animals, to teach them to perform all sorts of entertaining tricks, is a task that requires perhaps a special talent on the part of the trainer, but above all demands patience and a thoroughly methodical procedure. Let us begin with the dog and see how he is taught his tricks.

The first thing every dog must learn is his name. Select a short, sharp-sounding name, and stick to it. Never call him anything else. If you have several dogs, the name is taught on the same principle. Divide their food, and then, placing a piece on the ground call each in turn by his name, and give him the food when he comes for it. Send the others back if they come forward out of their turn. By and by they will learn that a certain name is always associated with a certain dog. Ramble among the dogs, and call out one of their names every now and then. If the right dog comes to you, reward him with a piece of cracker. Pay no attention to the other dogs. They will learn very soon; and the first great lesson—dependence and obedience—will have been learned.

Having taught a dog to fetch and carry—which he will easily learn—the next thing is to teach him to go and get any object called for. Place a glove on the floor; then say to the dog, "Fetch the glove," putting the accent on the last word. Then, when he has done this several times, place a shoe on the floor; and teach him to fetch this in a similar manner. Now place both objects on the ground, and teach him to fetch either one, as asked for—rewarding him when he brings you the right one, and rebuking him when he fetches the wrong, which you take from him and replace. He will soon learn to distinguish the articles, when a third may be substituted and so on until a number are on the floor. You should then go into the next room, taking the dog with you, and send him in to fetch any articles you mention. After a little time, he will bring you the right one every time.

Next, teach him differences in color. Place a red object on the floor, and a blue one beside it. Teach him to fetch you the article called for as you did before, being careful to reward him every time he brings you the right handkerchief. Then put down a green object, a purple, a yellow one, and so on; until finally the needed array of colors can be used for selection. —Scientific American.

A Feathered Beauty.

The quezal of Guatemala is considered the most beautiful bird in the world. Its plumage vies with the rainbow and shines with a metallic luster. Until within the last few years it was unknown to science, mainly owing to the fact that it is a hermit among the feathered creatures, delighting in the silence of high altitudes. It dwells on mountain heights, above 7,000 feet in elevation.

The quezal was the royal bird of the Aztecs, and its plumes were used to decorate the headdress and cloaks of the kings of the land. Its breast is a brilliant scarlet, while its green tail attains a length of three feet. It is about the size of a common pigeon. It nests in holes in rotten trees, which it enlarges with its bill, so as to make a roomy and comfortable residence. The young are hatched totally devoid of feathers.

It is the hardest of all birds to prepare for mounting, for its skin is as tender as so much tissue paper and the feathers are implanted to such a slight depth that they readily fall out. A specimen is very apt to be spoiled by falling against a branch of a tree on being shot.

Up to 1860 naturalists did not know where the quezal was to be found. The few specimens which had fallen into their hands had been obtained from Indians, who kept the secret. About that time, however, a collector, visiting that country, got on the track of the birds and went up into the mountains, where he shot a number of them. In ancient times the skins of all birds of this species belonged to the king, and none but members of the royal family was allowed to wear the feathers.

The quezal belongs to the family of trogons, the genus including 46 species, 33 of which are American. All are very beautiful and extremely rare.—Seattle Times.

Must Ask Leave.

It appears, apropos of Mr. Asquith's recent visit abroad, that the prime minister may not set foot upon foreign soil without the permission of the sovereign, observes and English correspondent. Mr. Gladstone, in 1883, when cruising on the Pembroke Castle, decided to run over to Copenhagen, and in writing to Queen Victoria he offers her "his humble apology for not having sought from your majesty the usual gracious permission before setting foot on a foreign shore."

If there is a more unpopular resident sojourning in Victoria than Mr. Moran, by profession a baseball umpire, a large throng which attended a burlesque entitled "Umpiring a Ball Game Without Eyesight" will not believe it. The Beavers took a sadly prolonged contest with his assistance at the ball yard yesterday. The score was 13 to 7. The chief feature was Umpire Moran's sad work—and he listened to a chorus of jeers and complaints, which seemed music to him, throughout the burlesque. There was little chance for baseball with the sort of umpiring staged by the official. The Northwestern league must be experiencing an umpire famine. He constantly irritated the pitchers with a running fire of talk, and banished Kennedy, Wilson and Kaufman from the ball yard.

He tried to make an announcement near the end of the game that today's contest would start at 2 p.m., when a great chorus of sound drowned his voice. The electorate would have no more of Moran than they had to have. The gathering didn't like him.

Jimmy Clark and Emil Frisk took a home run each.

Moran, the umps with the bad eyesight, caused much annoyance to the assemblage in the first, when he started something by giving Bennett a walk, although he struck out. This began a series of tragic occurrences. Meek objected to the umpire's decision and was threatened with being thrown out of the lot by the blind autocrat. If he had he would have been unable to make an error which let two runs in. The total was three in the stanza. When Moran issued the transportation to Pug Bennett, he stole, and Meek pegged to catch him, but there was no one at second and Bennett went on to third. Brashear was walked. Frisk hit, scoring Bennett, and Kippert hit and filled the sacks. James fanned. Scharnweber popped a fly and Meek shouting "I've got it," warned off Weed; but he hadn't got it. As the ball rolled from his glove Brashear and Frisk trotted across the untended platter. Three runs.

The Bees tied the score in their half. Yohe got a walk to start. Then Jimmy Clark hit Rawlings and he went to first. Kennedy hit and filled the bags. While he stepped aside to object to Moran's eyesight, the umps signalled to Jimmy Clark to pitch and called two strikes. Clark let drive another and Kennedy, jumped back and walloped it. This decorated the three stations. Then Meek drove a hot liner, scoring Yohe and Rawlings. Kennedy was tagged getting back to second—so Moran said, and his say counted. Weed forced Meek at second and stole; Keliar got a walk, and Merritt hit, scoring Weed. Friene walked, and filled the bags, but Narveson didn't improve the situation.

Umpire Moran continued his work by putting Kennedy out of the game, Stadlie going in. Clark got a home run. Stadlie robbed Pug Bennett by a fast running catch. Brashear got a hit. Moran continued his performance by worrying Hugler. Narveson with a running fire of talk. And when Kiddo Wilson passed a few remarks concerning the sort of umpiring the ex-leaguer was offering, the umpire stopped the game to put Kiddo out of the lot. Brashear was tagged going to second.

Meek staged as pretty a piece of play as has been seen on the local diamond in the second. Rawlings hit and went to third on a wild pitch with two down. Clark wouldn't take a chance with Meek there, and purposely walked him. Then the big catcher started leisurely for second, with a shout. Lewis fogged for a return throw, but it couldn't come fast enough to prevent Johnny Rawlings getting across the plate—and the score was evened.

The visitors added a couple in the third. After Meek dropped an easy pop fly, Frisk hit a home run. Kippert walloped a long fly to left for two bags. James flew out to Merritt. Scharnweber was safe. Lewis hit, scoring Kippert. Moran returned to work then and gave Clark a pass. Keliar earned applause then with a fine double tagging Clark on the line on Brinker's tap and doubling the batter at first.

The umpire incensed the gaining more in the third, when he added to his mellow decisions the banishment of Kaufman from the coach line. Assisted by Umpire Moran the Beavers fattened the score by four. Bennett was given a walk. Brashear hit, Frisk bunted safe, and filled the bags. Kippert hit, scoring a couple, and Scharnweber's hit cleaned up, bringing in two more.

One more was added by the visitors in the fifth, Brinker scoring, following his triple-sacker, on Bennett's sacrifice fly.

The feature of the Beavers' half of the sixth—the first that was scoreless—was a double play by Rawlings' catch of Scharnweber's hit, tagging James sliding back to first.

Once again Moran caused a concert of jeers in the sixth. Weed, Yohe and Rawlings hit in succession, filling the bags. Stadlie flied out to left, and Weed came home on the throw. Moran held that he started before the ball was caught and called him out. Meek for the other couple stranded on the bags.

In the eighth the Beavers made it twelve. Frisk hit and stole. Kippert hit; James' out advanced them, and Scharnweber's hit scored Frisk. They made it thirteen in the ninth when Bennett's long drive scored Jimmy Clark after he had been given a walk.

The Bees took three in the final. Meek walked, Keller singled and Friene hit a home run, scoring both in front.

BURLEITH TENNIS CLUB'S NEW HOME

Popular Local Organization Has Five Courts on Hillside Avenue

The opening of the Burleith Tennis Club for the season 1912 took place on Wednesday last at the club's new quarters on Hillside ave. Four double clay courts have just been completed. The former lawns were located at the Gorge. At an early date a club tournament will be held. The committee would be pleased to arrange inter-club matches with any other clubs in the city. At a recent meeting of the members the following officers were elected for the year 1912: President, H. McConnell; vice-president, W. Blake; secretary-treasurer, Miss F. Corder.

The Sons of St. George cricket club will visit Duncan on Dominion Day to play the Cowichan eleven. About twenty-five of the organization's supporters will accompany the party. Two of the latter have promised to present bats to the players who succeed in scoring fifty runs. A ball is to be presented the man who accomplishes the hat trick. This is taken by the players as indicating the right spirit and they are expected to make an excellent showing.

CHAMPIONS OUT TO WIN MONDAY

Vancouver's Star Lacrosse Twelve Will Be Strong in Next League Match With New Westminster's Team

VANCOUVER, June 28.—Hyland, the New Westminster home player, who appeared for the first time with the Salmonbellies last Saturday afternoon, has been suspended for the holiday game by the Lacrosse Commission for using foul language to the referee. Hyland knocked out Cory Hess, the Vancouver goaltender, and was penalized. He used a little wordy argument with the official, and the choice of words was not appreciated, with the result that he was reported to the commission.

"Both Mr. Jardine and myself are as one on the question of foul language," declared Mr. J. H. Senkler last evening. "Foul language is not permitted in league baseball and there is no occasion for it on the lacrosse field. Many ladies and children attend these games and we are determined to keep them clean. In the future when a player uses bad language we will deal even more severely with him, and it is probable that we will dismiss him from the game for the rest of the season."

The commission has decided to appoint Messrs. Alex Turnbull and H. P. Latham to referee Monday's game.

Jones Is Confident

Con Jones expressed himself last night as confident of winning the big holiday game. "In fact, there is not the slightest doubt that the champions will put forth the most tremendous effort yet recorded to defeat the Salmonbellies, as the winning of the game by the latter will place them in an almost solid position. With "Newsy" Lalonde, "Fid" Cummins and "Bones" Allen in the game—and it is practically decided that these players will line up when the whistle blows at Recreation park on Monday—the Greenshirts should be strengthened both on the home and the defence.

"Newsy is a sure thing for Monday's game," said Con Jones last night. "We have been nursing him up for the match, and although he has not been doing much work on the regular practice line up, he has been getting into good trim. I have had a special steel-cased elbow guard made for Lalonde to protect his arm, which is still a little tender, and I think that he will do all right."

Lalonde will probably play outside home, McDougall dropping out to make place for him. Who will make way for Allen has not yet been decided upon. 'Fid' Cummins has been making good in practice, and he wil probably go on at first defence with Pickering and Ion before him. This move should ensure a better working defence.

Nick Carter is the one man on the Vancouver home deserving of unqualified praise. When Vancouver defeated the Redshirts from the Fraser in the second game of the season, it was Carter who covered himself with glory, and throughout the team's recent adversaries Nick has played the game. He has an indomitable spirit, which does not even waver at a 6 or 7 to 1 score. He keeps on going to the end of the chapter, and if the remainder

FIELD SPORTS AT OAK BAY MONDAY

Dominion Day's athletic feature in Victoria undoubtedly will be the field sports arranged to take place at Oak Bay under the auspices of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian societies. One of the most comprehensive programmes ever undertaken by that organization has been announced. Prizes aggregating in the neighborhood of $1,000 in value are being offered. It is assured that there will be a large number of entries in both the open and the association events. Besides the athletic contests there are the dancing, bagpipe, and costume contests, all of which are attracting considerable attention. The officials expect that there will be a record breaking attendance.

Mainland Invaders

That the meet is creating general interest is shown by the following, which is taken from the Vancouver press:

"A big contingent of track and field cracks will go from the Vancouver Athletic club to Victoria for the Caledonian games on Dominion Day and though the winged V team will be shy Dune Gillis and Frank McConnell, the stars of the squad, the club expects to annex quite a few of the trophies which have been hung up for competition. Among the members of the team will be Bert Davidson, who will enter the sprints; Norman Dillabough, who will go in the sprints and jumps; Will Chandler, who will run in the one and three-mile events; F. Mitchell, who will start in the sprints and jumps; Leggatt, another sprinter of promise; Dodd, a quarter-miler who has been showing good form in the absence of Tom Gallon should win, and possibly Archie McDiarmid, who will enter in the weights, broad jump, hundred-yard handicap, and will be a strong candidate for the all-round honors.

"The Vancouver Athletic club has made a great record so far this season, having won every meet in which they have entered their team and Secretary Bob Scragg is very confident that the club representatives will win at Victoria."

They usually have some sarcastic remarks to make on the subject, but when it comes to his own headgear, he's a foolish man who doesn't choose it with care. It's good business to do so. See for yourself the style and material which we put into OUR Hats. Prices are lower, too.

COLLINGWOOD

A GARDEN SPOT WHERE SMALL INVESTMENTS GROW BIG

Suppose You Have $100 Cash

To put into a safe investment. You intend that hundred to be a step to your future prosperity. You will be rather careful where you invest it. You will look for a safe buy where small amounts will grow rapidly and surely. You will look for real property, in a section with a big future, where a few dollars planted now will bring forth many fold when development reaches you.

Victoria is to be a big city. This everyone concedes. There is but one direction in which it may expand. The map will make this clear. A portion of this area is marked for immediate development. The Saanich suburban will do this. COLLINGWOOD is in the suburban belt.

Collingwood is a park. It has the soil, the drainage, the beauty, the attributes that give property intrinsic value. Sidewalks will not need to be put two feet above the ground in Collingwood. It fronts on the best and most direct thoroughfare between Victoria and Saanich. The Suburban Electric passes on one side and the Victoria and Sidney railroad on the other. The stations on both these lines are most convenient to Collingwood.

THERE IS SPLENDID VALUE IN THESE LOTS AT THE PRICES

WE ASK—The terms are most attractive, deferred payments amounting to less than

$8.50 Per Month on a $350 Lot

The lots are large, and range from $350 to $650. Motors to take you out at your convenience.

WILL HAY FEVER BE NEXT "INCURABLE" DISEASE TO BE CURED?

Wonderful Results Obtained by Using Tablets Made From Fresh Fruit Juices.—Lady In Cornwall Centre Tried Them.

Genuine Case of Severe Hay Fever Completely Eradicated From The System By "Fruit-a-tives," The Famous Fruit Medicine.

"I suffer tortures every year with Hay Fever—please tell me frankly if 'Fruit-a-tives' will do me any good." You are saying this to yourself as you read this article. First of all, read the facts about this distressing trouble. Hay Fever is not a nervous affliction. There is probably no actual disease of the nerves. But the nerves—and in fact the whole system—is affected by the condition of the blood. The nerves are intensely irritated by impure blood, due to defective action of the bowels, kidneys and skin. In fully ninety per cent. of the cases of Hay Fever, there is chronic Constipation. Weak Stomach, Indigestion and hot, dry skin. The great truth of this is shown by the fact that sprays, gargles and other local treatment do not cure. They cannot. The trouble does not lie in the nose and throat but in the stomach, bowels, kidneys and skin. This is why "Fruit-a-tives" cured Mrs. Kemp of hay fever.

Cornwall Centre, Ont., November 27th, 1911.

I was a martyr to Hay Fever for a long time—probably fifteen years—and I suffered terribly at times. I consulted many physicians and took their treatment—and I tried every remedy I heard of as good for Hay Fever. But nothing did me any good. Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and this remedy cured me completely. I am now well, and I wish to say to every sufferer from Hay Fever—"Try Fruit-a-tives." This fruit medicine cured me when every treatment failed and I believe it is a perfect cure for this dreadful disease." MRS. HENRY KEMP.

Impure blood causes the itching eyes, sore throat, irritated nose that we know as Hay Fever. As this is true, the sensible thing to do is to purify the blood by taking "Fruit-a-tives." Mrs. Kemp took "Fruit-a-tives" and is cured.

Why not let "Fruit-a-tives regulate your bowels, kidneys and skin? Why not let "Fruit-a-tives" give you health, and strength and appetite? Why not let "Fruit-a-tives" so build up the system that you won't have Hay Fever this summer? "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices. It is particularly suited to the use of women because it is pleasant to take and acts mildly and gently. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. Dealers in all parts of Canada sell "Fruit-a-tives." But if you are unable to obtain them in your neighborhood, they will be sent you postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

WILL LET CONTRACT FOR MORE PAVING

Council Will Be Asked to Award Approximately 27,000 Yards of Paving to the Worswick Paving Company

An additional contract for asphalt paving to the amount of approximately 27,500 square yards will be awarded by the city to the Worswick Paving company, to which was recently let a contract for about 23,000 square yards in the southeastern portion of the city. The streets to be included in the new contract are: Bushby street, from Dallas road easterly; Jubilee avenue, from Leighton road to Oak Bay avenue; Davie street, from Leighton road to Oak Bay avenue; Lee avenue, from Leighton road to Fort street; Mears street, from Cook street to Quadra street (heavy asphalt), Leighton road, from Fort street to Richmond avenue; Olive street from May street to George street; Ontario street from St. Lawrence street to Dallas road (heavy asphalt).

The above streets were recommended by City Engineer Rust and considered at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the streets committee of the city council. In addition it was decided to include in the list Gladstone avenue, from Fernwood road to Stanley avenue, and Stanley avenue, from Pembroke avenue to Pandora avenue.

The city engineer pointed out in his report that as the Worswick Paving company will practically complete all its contracts within a short time, and as it would be good policy on the part of the city to keep both paving companies working to their full capacity until the close of the season, he had consulted with the Worswick Paving company, which is prepared to undertake the contract at the following prices, those submitted in their tender of last year: $1.83 per square yard for heavy, and $1.45 for light asphalt, with excavation, other than rock, at 60 cents per cubic yard; excavation of solid rock at $2 per yard, and curb and gutter 55 cents per lineal foot.

The engineer also reported that he intends to increase the thickness of the concrete base one inch, making the base for light asphalt five inches and for heavy asphalt six inches, while the concrete mixture will be in proportions of 1:3:6 instead of 1:3:5 hitherto used, the company to be allowed 13 cents per square yard for the additional concrete, this being the price allowed the Canadian Mineral Rubber company on the Douglas street pavement recently awarded to the latter concern. With what the Canadian Mineral Rubber company now has on hand this additional contract will keep both companies busy until the close of the season.

More Work for Ward Three

The committee will recommend the letting of the above contract, the Stanley avenue and Gladstone avenue portions being added on recommendation of Alderman Gleason, who pointed out that so far this year only two blocks of paving have been laid in Ward Three.

Alderman Stewart stated that City Engineer Rust is averse to laying asphalt pavement on a four-inch base, as that thickness is not sufficient for traffic conditions and lasting qualities.

Alderman Dilworth urged calling for new tenders, instancing the case of Douglas street which had been let to the Canadian Mineral Rubber company on the company's bid of last year. He understood that the Worswick Paving company had taken exception to the city's action in failing to call for bids on that work.

If the necessary bylaws have been already passed the contract for the paving of Manchester road, from Gorge road to Burnside avenue, and of Garbally road, from Gorge road to the waterfront, will be let to the Canadian Mineral Rubber company. These streets have been awaiting improvement for many months.

If owners to be benefitted are willing to have the work done on the local improvement plan and pay their share of the cost Erie street will be continued through to the mill of the Brackman-Ker Milling company. Last year the owners asked the city to make the extension out of general revenue, but this request was refused.

Will Ascertain Cost

The question of paving Pembroke avenue from Chambers street to Fernwood road was laid over for a week until an estimate of the cost of widening the thoroughfare can be secured. The bylaw to pave the street at its present width was passed last year and then the bylaw to expropriate the necessary land for widening purposes was passed. To pave to the width now proposed may require another paving bylaw to be passed.

Alderman Okell suggested going ahead on the old lines, but Alderman Gleason urged that as the council had decided to widen the street it should do so and expropriate the land required in the usual manner without waiting to ascertain what the owners will agree to take for their property.

Alderman Beard asserted that the only proper method was to ascertain first what the widening will cost. He did not propose to be "held up" in the matter of cost as was the case in the widening of Douglas street. If the owners would accept a reasonable price for the land taken by the city the work could be proceeded with.

If the necessary bylaw for improving Hillside avenue, east of Blackwood street, has been passed the city will proceed with the work in order that the underground conduits for the telephone wires may be laid. The street was improved between Blanchard and Blackwood streets and then work was discontinued because of heavy rock excavation. The telephone company is waiting for the city to proceed before laying the underground conduits, half the cost of which will be borne by the company.

He Found Them.

Dogs in general are spoken of as the servants and friends of man. Only of the sheep-dog, it has been claimed, can this be said with absolute truth. In his "Memories and Portraits," R. L. Stevenson relates an incident in which the shepherd dog showed greater business acumen than its master:

Once, in the days of his good dog, he had bought some sheep in Edinburgh, and on the way out, the road being crowded, he lost two. This was a reproach to John and a slur upon the dog, and both were alive to their misfortune. Word came after some days that a farmer had found two sheep, and thither went John and the dog to ask for restitution. But the farmer was a hard man, and stood upon his rights. "How were they marked?" he asked, and as John had bought from many sellers, he had no notion of the marks.

"Very well," said the farmer, "then it's only right that I should keep them."

Then said John: "It's a fact that I canna' tell the sheep, but if my dog can, will ye let me have them?"

The farmer was honest as well as hard, and I daresay he had little anxiety over the ordeal, as he had all the sheep upon his farm into one large party and he turned John's dog into their midst. But that hairy man of business knew his errand well, that John and he had bought two sheep and (to their shame lost them. He knew besides (who knows not, except by listening) that they had come for their recovery, and, without pause or blunder he singled out first one and then another—the two waifs.

The shepherd and his dog—what do I say? The true shepherd and his man then set off together in jocund humor, and "smiled to "ither" all the way home, with the two recovered ones before them.—Christian Science Monitor.

MEXICO MARU FROM ORIENT

Japanese Steamer Brings News That Osaka Shosen Kaisha Has Bought Another Vessel for Transpacific Trade

WILL ACT AS A RELIEF STEAMER

Good Cargo of General Merchandise on the Vessel—Freight From the Far East Is Increasing

The steamer Mexico Maru of the Osawa Shosen kaisha, which reached the outer wharf yesterday morning with 170 passengers and 4384 tons of general cargo, brought news that the Japanese steamship line has purchased a new steamer of 7000 tons register in the United Kingdom and renamed her the Luzan Maru for the transpacific service of the company. The new steamer is to be used as a relief vessel for the fleet in the transpacific trade in order that when such accidents as the detention of the Tacoma Maru and Panama Maru in quarantine occur the schedule will still be maintained. Capt. Yamamoto, formerly of the Tacoma Maru, is in England to bring out the new vessel and other officers and crew have been sent from Japan via Siberia.

The Mexico Maru left Yokohama on June 12th and for the first seven days of her passage encountered strong head winds and high seas, not making more than seven or eight knots an hour. After passing the meridian good weather prevailed and the liner made up time. Seven saloon passengers were brought, Mr. Wm. Hetherington, a university teacher from China who embarked at Shanghai; Mr. Muruyama, a Japanese merchant of Chicago, who went to Japan to marry and who brought his bride with him; Mr. Ando, a Japanese school teacher, who will take charge of the Japanese school at Watsonville, California, and a Chinese couple, Mr. Cho and wife. There were 170 steerage passengers, mostly Chinese. The cargo for Victoria totalled 470 tons, including 1145 packages of tea, 1090 mats of rice, 391 cases of peanuts, 225 cases of porcelain, 320 rolls of matting. For Seattle the steamer has 14,276 cases of tea, 500 cases of silk, 730 gunnies, 813 sacks of concentrates from the Unsan mines in Korea for the Tacoma smelter and general merchandise.

The Mexico Maru is being followed across the Pacific by the steamer Inaba Maru of the Nippon Yusen kaisha, which left Yokohama June 19th and is due on Wednesday next. The Inaba Maru, which is replacing the Kamakura Maru in this service, has 900 tons of freight to land here. The Antiochus of the Blue Funnel line left Yokohama on Saturday last and is due here next Saturday with a full cargo of general merchandise from the United Kingdom and far eastern ports. The Orteric of the Weir line left Yokohama June 26. The Empress of India, the next C.P.R. steamer expected, is scheduled to leave Yokohama on Tuesday.

FOR CAPE NOME

Mackinaw Arrives on the Sound to Load Cargo for the Bering Sea Port

The steamer Mackinaw reached Tacoma yesterday to load for Cape Nome and is scheduled to leave for the north on July 3. The Mackinaw was operated in the Alaska service over five years by the Western Alaska Steamship company. She is owned by the Robert Dollar Steamship company and was chartered about two years ago by Bates & Chesebrough and placed in the Panama trade out of San Francisco. The vessel was converted into an oil burner about a year ago. She received an overhauling just before sailing from San Francisco, and is in excellent condition for her voyage to the far north.

ANOTHER PANAMA LINE

Pan-American Mail to Have Service From New Orleans to North Pacific via the Canal

NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—Commercial North and South America were joined by another link today when steamship service between New Orleans and South American ports was inaugurated. The new line, known as the Pan-American Mail, will operate the first American owned vessels that have sailed from New Orleans to South American ports since the Civil War. After the Panama Canal is opened, it is planned to extend the service to San Francisco and Seattle.

PRINCESS MAY IS BOUND FOR SKAGWAY

C. P. R. Steamer Left Port for Lynn Canal Last Night—Princess Royal as a Troopship

The steamer Princess May, Capt. McLeod, of the C.P.R., left the Belleville street wharf last night for Skagway and way ports with a fair complement of passengers and a good freight, including big shipments of provisions for the northern interior, including the Skeena river and Stikine and Yukon points.

Among the passengers on the C.P.R. vessel was Mr. J. C. Kinghorn, inspector of hulls, who was booked for Skagway en route to the Yukon river to carry out his yearly inspection of the sternwheel steamers plying on the northern river. Others who left for the north on the Princess May were Messrs. C. Chapman and W. Moyer, bound to Ketchikan. Misses Menzies for Juneau, Mrs. Vey for Skagway, Mrs. and the Misses Agnew for Prince Rupert, Mrs. Clarke and Mr. J. L. Davis for Dawson, and Mrs. Arthur Lee, who will make the round trip to Skagway. From Vancouver the steamer will take a number of excursionists who intend to make the round trip.

The steamer Princess Royal made a special trip from Vancouver to Cowichan Bay yesterday, acting as a troop ship. The C.P.R. vessel took the Sixth D. C. C. Rifles and 72nd Highlanders from the mainland for the route march on Vancouver Island and sham battle.

The Princess Ena, which is being overhauled and repaired on the ways of the B.C. Marine railway company at Esquimalt will be floated on Wednesday and will resume service in carrying general cargoes to Prince Rupert and Skagway.

Seiners Not Successful

PORT TOWNSEND, June 28.—Light catches and low prices are proving discouraging to many of the Neah Bay fishermen and so far the season has not been as profitable as anticipated. Silver salmon are bringing the fishermen 12 1-2 cents each while sockeye, spring and tyees range from 50 to 75 cents, with but few fish being taken. The biggest day's catch so far reported was made several days ago when 10,000 salmon were brought in. Of these one purse seine power boat drew 7,000, leaving the balance divided among purse seiners and trollers. Trollers report poor success and numbers put in full days and find but from one to three fish to reward their efforts. The fleet is slowly being increased by new arrivals and while a few of the smaller boats have left for other fishing grounds, the fishing population is increasing. It is yet early in the season and the run is expected to show up much better a little later on.

Fine Remitted

PORT TOWNSEND, June 28.—Through Collector of Customs F. C. Harper, the department of commerce these boys appear to have done emim recently imposed on the steamship Dove, operating out of Tacoma for violating the act of June 7, 1897. The Dove was shown to have been under way after sunset with no lights showing. An investigation showed that the vessel is owned by the Merchants' Transportation company and was in command of Capt. F. M. Hunt. It was the first trip of Hunt as master of the vessel and he was unaware that the electric lights were out of order. He was notified by the engineer of this fact and ordered oil lights to be substituted. At the time this was done it was after sunset, though not dark. A fine of $200 was imposed on the vessel and $50 on the captain. The latter fine has been reduced to $20 and the fine levied on the Dove cancelled.

Owners Give Bond

In order that the steamship Fulton, belonging to the Montesano Steamship company, which was seized by the customs officials for alleged violations of the customs regulations, may continue service, the owners put up a bond for her release. The Fulton is engaged in trade between British Columbia ports and Seattle, for Dodwell & Company.

Rupert City Reports

Bound from Ladysmith for Unalaska with a cargo of coal, the steamship Rupert City reported by wireless Wednesday night while 1,312 miles from Cape Flattery. The vessel is expected to arrive at Unalaska some time today.

Should Have Made a Will

Children Neglect Aged Mother.

A sad case was brought to the attention of a charitable society recently, when they received an application for relief from an elderly woman.

Her husband had been prosperous but died without leaving any will. The widow did not insist on her rights to a third of the estate, but turned everything over to the children, believing that they would look after her for the balance of her life. She had lived with one after another of her married sons and daughters, and her story of the way in which she was treated causes a very serious reflection on the ingratitude of children.

The main point is, however, that it is the duty of every person, to make a will. There is no excuse, because it is no longer necessary to employ a lawyer or incur large expense—the BA Will Forms can be obtained for 35 cents. Accompanying each form is a specimen will properly filled out and full instructions for your guidance.

The BAX Will Form filled out and witnessed by two friends is absolutely binding and indisputable.

For sale by all druggists and stationers, or sent on receipt of 35 cents by the BAX Will Form company, 2801 College street, Toronto.

SEEKING ENTENTE WITH RUSSIA

Mexico Maru Brings News That Prince Katsura Will Seek Agreement With the Czar's Government

News was brought by the steamer Mexico Maru, which arrived yesterday morning that Prince Katsura will leave Japan on July 6 bound to St. Petersburg to discuss an agreement between Russia and Japan relative to action of Russia and Japan in northern China, Mongolia and Hi. The diplomatic mission on which Prince Katsura has been sent is considered one of the most important undertaken by Japan. It is well known that while the late Prince Ito was in St. Petersburg seeking to make an agreement with Russia the Anglo-Japanese alliance which was fostered by Katsura was announced, and, according to Japanese newspapers while they admit that the alliance was of great use in the war with Russia and occupation subsequently of Korea the situation has changed and an agreement with Russia would be preferable. The Nichi Nichi says: "Of course the Anglo-Japanese alliance is the first guarantee of the maintainance of peace in the Far East, but Russia has special interests in China, and her will should always be respected in far eastern dealings. It is, therefore, necessary for Japan to have a good understanding with Russia though it may not be necessary to conclude any new formal entente cordiale."

China's Northern Border

Meanwhile Russian activity in Mongolia, where there is great unrest, is worrying China. The Japan Gazette epitomizes the situation confronting President Yuan Shih Kai as follows: "He cannot but have observed that these are signs of growing foreign distrust on the frontiers. This is especially true of Mongolia and Hsinkiang, and along sections where Russia claims, or has, special interests. He gets reports of Chinese being driven out of the Russian zone and of Russian troops being sent to Kashgar in force. He has received peremptory demands from Russia regarding the navigation of the Amur river, the financing and policing of Mongolia and Hsinkiang, etc., all to be complied with in two weeks from date of their presentation. That time-limit must shortly expire, and there is no word of any reply from Peking. In the meantime the Mahometans are gaining ground in Hsinkiang, and the Chinese seem utterly unable to restore order, so that an excellent pretext for Russian intervention is at hand. So anarchistical, indeed, appear conditions throughout the western sections, from Outer Mongolia, through Thibet and Szechuan to Yunnan, that, as reported, other nations besides Russia appear to be taking timely precautions to protect their interests. But the pressure being exerted by Russia is the most formidable because President Yuan knows that it leaps with traditional Russian policy in the Far East."

Russian Mongolia

Russia is training a Mongolian army, according to advices received at Peking. The Mongolian authorities have organized thirty regiments (composed of 500 men each), of which 20 are cavalry and the rest artillery and infantry. The regiments are trained by Russian officers, the rifles and other arms being imported from Siberia. The result is so far very satisfactory. On the completion of the organization, the Mongolian minister of war has in mind raising another 80 regiments of conscripts in order to strengthen the basis of Mongolian independence with a view to building up a Great Mongolia, comprising the whole of Hsinkiang. The Chinese government has at present no time and money to deal with the frontier question, and things are left to follow their natural course.

Russia is pushing forward her schemes in Mongolia energetically. Having secured navigation rights over the Akun river, she is now preparing to establish a junction with Manjuria Station. Russia is also planning to inaugurate an automobile service between Manjuria and Kulon.

AMUSEMENTS

Empress Theatre—Last night Herbert Brooks, the magician and wonder worker who has been proving a great attraction at the Empress theatre all week performed a great feat. In answer to a challenge made that he could not escape from a specially constructed packing case in the manner that he makes an escape from a trunk on the stage of the theatre nightly he agreed to make the attempt, and, while he occupied longer in performing the feat than from the trunk, he succeeded and won great applause. The feat followed a good magical and sleight-of-hand performance. Allan Dinehart and Miss Anna Heritage shared the applause with their presentation of the sketch "The Two Rubles," a bright a little play as any seen on the vaudeville stage. John T. Murray, the comedian, eccentric and funny, gave an enjoyable turn dispensing a great array of witticisms and singing some good parodies. Misses Irene and Bobbie Smith, a clever couple who have a soubrette act, sang, danced and played the piano and did all well, and the Krags trio of equilibrists and gymnasts performed some thrilling feats from a high bar perched far above the stage. The last performances will be given this afternoon and evening and it is expected that capacity audiences will be the rule.

"Resurrection"—Leo Tolstoi's great Russian drama of Siberia was produced again at the Victoria theatre last night before a full house, and will be repeated for the last time tonight, with the matinee this afternoon. The acting of Miss Verna Felton was a distinguished success again last night, she in the part of Katusha Maslova holding her audience in rapt attention through each of the five acts. The strong dramatic effect of act four made itself felt particularly, the audience rising to the occasion and bringing the popular stock actress back to the footlights to receive the applause. The other characters of the cast are all in capable hands, the tremendous force of the drama being set forth with a realism that made the walls of the old Victoria seem far away. Mr. Irving Kennedy's Prince Dimitri was a masterpiece of acting. He appeared with more force and conviction than in any character in which he has appeared here to date.

Crystal Theatre—Today is the last time you will have an opportunity of seeing two of the best acts that have appeared at the Crystal in some time. Billy Duval, the "Tramp Comedian," is a laugh from the time he comes on till he goes off. Mr. Duvall has the misfortune to have but one leg, and consequently uses a "peg leg" for the one that is missing, and the way he dances with a "wooden leg" is a nine days wonder. His songs and sayings are all original, and as a tramp he is a dandy. Powers and Freed have a novelty musical act that is the talk of the city. They not only have several different kinds of instruments, among which are marimbiphones, bells, guitars, mandolins and musical glasses, but they know how to play them, using the highest grade of music. These acts are a credit to any house, and we urge you to see them. "The Mexican Revolutionist" is the feature for today. It is true in every detail of the late insurrection, having been taken while hostilities were on. "Love of an Island Maid" is a beautiful love story by the Selig company. "Panama Canal, 1911," is the latest picture of the greatest engineering feat ever undertaken." This picture is worth the price of admission alone. "Jack Fat and Jim Slim" is a good comedy by the Vitagraph company It is taken at Coney Island. Take advantage of the matinee, and be assured of good seats. Vaudeville starts at three. Pictures from 1.30 to 5.30. Evening pictures from 6.30 to 11. Vaudeville from 7 to 11.

Canadian Medical Association Meeting.

The annual convention of the Canadian Medical Association is to be held at Edmonton this year, from August 10 to August 14. Dr. H. G. Mackid of Calgary is president. On the occasion of this gathering it is proposed to inaugurate a new system of registration for the Dominion. The necessary legislation to bring about the proposed change has been passed by the Dominion parliament and by all the provincial legislatures. Under the proposed system, all certificates already issude to existing practitioners by the various provincial medical boards will be accepted by a Dominion medical board, which will then take over the examination of all medical men seeking to practice, and certificates issued by this board will enable the holders to practice in any part of the Dominion of Canada. An excursion to the famous Yellowhead Pass has been arranged as a pleasant termination to the convention. A special train is to be placed, by the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, at the disposal of those who wish to take the trip.

The arrangements with the railway companies are that members attending the convention, (and this will include their wives), will get single fare for the return journey, providing there is an attendance of 100 from all over Canada. That number will be easily obtained, so that no more favorable opportunity for an outing can be offered the profession; one combining business, a holiday and a pleasure trip. The single fare rate is being made by the direct route to Winnipeg and Edmonton; or the delegates can travel by the Lake Route, landing at Fort William, thence by rail, at a slightly additional figure, to cover the cost of the meals and berth furnished on the steamers; or the members may go or return via Chicago.

The meeting this year bids fair to be a most interesting one on the scientific side. Dr. A. Giles, a prominent surgeon of London, England, is to deliver the address in Surgery, and Dr. A. D. Blackaders of Montreal, the address in Medicine. A large number of interesting papers have already been promised. There will also be a public lecture by Dr. Adami of Montreal. Mr. M. J. Sturm, hospital architect, Chicago, will deliver an illustrated public lecture during the convention on: "The Economics of Hospital Planning and Management."

All qualified medical practitioners in good standing are eligible for membership in the association and it is hoped that a great many who are not at present members will take advantage of this meeting to make the trip to Edmonton, which will be most pleasurable as well as profitable.

LADY HAMILTON

The celebrated English beauty who captured the heart and swayed the later life of Lord Nelson, had a charming complexion which the poets of her day compared to a delicately-tinted rose in full bloom. It is now known that this beautiful woman exercised the greatest care over her complexion, treating her skin with a preparation of Almonds and Roses. The formula was a well-guarded secret for long, but any one may obtain the lotion now at most drug stores. It is sold under the name of Sealy's Almonrose and its regular use assures a beautiful complexion as well as a soft and velvety skin.

PALSER WINS IN THE THIRD

Bombardier Wells Knocked Out After Having Best of Opening Rounds of Fight in New York

NEW YORK, June 28.—Al Palser, the local heavyweight, with "white hope aspirations," knocked out Bombardier Wells, the heavyweight champion of England in the third round of a scheduled ten-round bout in Madison Square Garden tonight. Wells' seconds threw up the sponge as the Britisher dropped from the effect of a deadly right body blow and lay inert in the ring.

Palser, who had been knocked down by the Britisher in the opening round, sent Wells to the floor towards the end of the second round, and knocked him down twice in the third. Wells was no sooner up the second time than Palser planted a hard right below the heart. Wells sank to the floor, crumpled in a heap, and lay there helpless while his seconds threw up the sponge, saving the referee the trouble of counting the man out.

It was a rapid fight from the start, but Palser's weight began to tell on the Englishman after the opening round. Wells looking supremely confident, and opened with a light left to the face, and Palser sent left and right to the head. Wells did some clever sidestepping then, and made Palser miss. Then Wells led left an dright to the head, cutting Palser's lip with a smash on the mouth. Wells sent a left and right to the jaw, and Palser went down for the count of six.

Palser when he got up, began holding, but Wells shook him off, sending lefts and rights to the face, and ducking safely from a wild right swing. Wells sent two straight lefts to the face, but Palser was playing wildly for the body at the bell. This was Wells' round.

Second Round

Wells landed lefts and rights to the head, and Palser landed both hands heavily on the body. Wells sent his right to body and head, but Palser crossed his right to the head. Wells ducked from a right swing, and sent a left to the face, and also two right upper-cuts on the body. He got away from Palser, and reached the head with right and left. Palser then stepped in, and with a right upper-cut under the chin, and a left to the jaw sent Wells down for the count of seven. Both men were sparring at the bell, which rang several seconds late. This was Wells' round.

In the third, Palser led with a right to the face, and exchanged lefts on the head. Palser planted two right upper cuts on the chest and under the chin, and Wells put a straight left to the face. Palser then uppercut with a right and sent Wells down a second later. Wells was very weak when he regained his feet, and Palser rushed him, landing under the heart. Wells sank to the floor without another blow, and his seconds threw up the sponge.

Palser weighed at the ringside, turning the scales at 228¼ pounds, and Wells' weight was given at 188½.

GETTING READY TO DEFEND THE CITY

Fifth Regiment Will March Out of Camp Tomorrow to Meet the Vancouver Invaders

The field gunners of No. 3 company and the fortress gunners of No. 1 company both fired their preliminary practices with service ammunition last night. No. 1 company, working with the auto-torpedo batteries of Black Rock of the Esquimalt chain of defences, fired first, making good practice with their battery of twelve pounder fixed guns at a Hong Kong target towed by the tug Beryl. Some fast and accurate shooting was done. No. 3 company fired shrapnel shell at a target moored to seaward of Fort Macaulay after the Esquimalt company had completed its practice, making good practice, and today the three companies will fire their competitive practice. No. 3 company will commence the series, firing with the six-inch guns of Fort Macaulay, which shoot a 100-pound shell, at a range of over four miles at Hong Kong targets in tow of the tug Beryl. Following this series, No. 1 company with its quick firers will start practice, and in the evening No. 3 company will open fire with its battery of twelve-pounder field guns, firing shrapnel shell.

Last night the band of the Fifth Regiment, C. G. A., gave an enjoyable band concert at the Macaulay plains camp, many visitors being present.

The forces in camp were issued with water bottles, mess tins, and equipment to take the field for the mobilization manoeuvres with which the annual training is being brought to a close.

The invaders, consisting of the 72nd Highlanders and Sixth D. C. C. Rifles from Vancouver landed yesterday at Cowichan Bay from the steamer Princess Royal, and marched to Cobble Hill, where the night was spent in bivouac, and today the invaders will march on to the summit. Tomorrow morning the scouts of the defence will learn that the invasion has taken place and the alarm will be sounded at the Macaulay plains camp, and the Fifth Regiment C. G. A., 104th Regiment, 18th Field Ambulance and permanent force will take the field to engage the mainland forces. The army service corps wagons are being made ready and when the brigade moves from camp tomorrow, following the church parade and muster which take place in the morning, the ambulance corps will have its ambulances and all its gear in the column.

The brigade of the defence will be in command of Lieut.-Col. A. W. Currie, camp commandant, and the enemy will be in charge of Capt. Duff Stuart.

Following the battle of Monday the mainland forces will march to the city to embark for home, and it is likely that the brigade encamped at Macaulay Point will join them in the march through the city, in which event there will be a larger military parade than has been seen in Victoria since the days when Esquimalt was a naval station in fact.

BASEBALL NOTES

Todya's game starts at 3 o'clock. The personnel of the opposing batteries was not known last night.

Umpire Moran tried to make this announcement yesterday afternoon but was hooted down, which did not strike the majority as the best of taste on the crowd's part, although "his umps" was not giving the best of satisfaction.

It was true that Pitcher Marveson was off color, being hammered all over the lot, but Catcher Meek's two costly errors on easy pop flies were enough to take the heart out of any twirler or baseball machine. Of course the burly catcher atoned to an extent with his heavy hitting.

Kennedy left the game at an early stage. Merritt went to centre field and Stadille adorned his old place in the left garden. He signalled his return with an exceedingly fine catch.

The Beavers clamped down the game in the fourth inning. From that on it was a listless exhibition. The Bees, as usual, rallied in the ninth and scored three, but it was much too late and too hopeless a task to inspire much enthusiasm. Even the optimistic southern fan, who has taken a prominent part in the rooting during the past two days, became just a little discouraged.

Jack Warner, the old catcher of the New York Giants, who took a franchise in the New York-Connecticut League, has paid off his players and quit. He started out at Kingston and then transferred to Poughkeepsie, Paterson, N. J., has been added to the league and the name changed to the New York-New Jersey League. Danbury, the only Connecticut town, dropped out some time ago.

IMMIGRATION POLICY RETARDS SETTLEMENT

Australian Regulations Far Behind the Liberal Measures Adopted by Canada—To Develop Railways

SYDNEY, N. S. W., June 28.—In the course of a vigorous protest against what it describes as "the immigration muddle," the "Australasian" takes a gloomy view of the commonwealth's prospects in the matter of attracting settlers. "Many strange and mysterious things," it remarks, "are done in the name of a White Australia. The other week we were treated to the curious spectacle of a customs official asserting his right to conduct the educational test in any European language he chose, so that he could examine a Russian in Spanish, and exclude a Norwegian for his ignorance of Greek. Then we have the still more extraordinary case of Mrs. Elliott, the widow of an Englishman and the daughter of a Scotch father and a Eurasian mother. She, it appears, is in New Zealand, and wishes to return to her home in Ceylon, but the Union company refuses to take her to Sydney because the Orient company has announced that it cannot under the aliens law, take her to Ceylon via Australian ports. Obviously this is a case that demands immediate inquiry; if such incidents are to be allowed to occur and to be noised abroad, Australia will soon cease to attract immigrants. And while these things are being done at this end, the emigration agencies at the other end appear to be blundering along in a hopelessly slipshod way, which tends to make Australia an object of derision to her smarter competitor, Canada. The representatives of the various states have spent great sums of money on pamphlets, lectures, and other forms of advertisement, but have made no effective provision for shipping the would-be emigrants to Australia.

"Nearly 70,000 emigrants left Britain for this country last year; this year, according to the calculations, the figures could easily be doubled 'if Australia were in earnest about it'; but it appears that shipping accommodation is not available for more than 75,000 at the outside. The shipping companies are not willing to make arrangements for coping with a greatly-increased volume of passenger traffic, because they know the attitude of the Australian Labor party towards immigration, and they fear that any day a new government may reverse the immigration policy of its state. And this is not an unnatural misgiving. There is a persistent rumor in England and in Western Australia that the Scaddan government intends to cease assisting immigration as soon as the current shipping contracts expire; and even if that rumor be unfounded, still it undoubtedly reflects the known temper of the Labor party towards immigration. Wherever the Labor party remains in power there will probably continue to be official hostility, veiled, indeed, but none the less deadly, to immigration, because that party has never been cured of the ancient delusion that the wealth of a country is a fixed quantity and the greater the number of mouths to apstume it the smaller the share of each individual consumer."

Larger Indemnity.

Following the example of the Federal house of representatives, who a year or two ago voted themselves a substantial increase of salary, the New South Wales Labor government have brought forward a bill to raise the remuneration of members of the state legislative assembly from $1,600 to $2,500 per annum. The measure also provides a special allowance of $1,250 for the leader of the opposition. On a motion to go into committee on the proposal to introduce the bill, Mr. Wade, leader of the opposition, said he considered it most unfair that the house should be asked to accept without any discussion such a highly-contentious measure. If parliament dipped its hand into the treasury chest and took the amount proposed, without a word of approval or authority from its constituents, it would be doing wrong, and would be misusing its powers. Assuming that members were entitled to a larger salary, parliament had no right to make this proposed raid upon the treasury without consultation with the people for whom members were working in the house. The bill was introduced by thirty-five votes to fourteen, and read a first time. The second reading, which was carried, produced an animated debate.

Now that the trans-continental railway to connect Perth with Melbourne and Sydney is well under way, attention is once more being directed to the kindred scheme for the construction of a line across the continent from north to south. This is no new proposal, but the urgent necessity for the opening up of the vast northern territory has now brought it well within the region of practical politics. Unfortunately its realization is likely to involve a good deal of inter-state jealousy. Queensland and New South Wales want the extension of the existing Darwin to Pine creek line to run in a southeasterly direction, through the pastoral areas of Queensland, straight to Sydney. But South Australia has already constructed a narrow-gauge line from Adelaide, 700 miles north, to Oodnadatta, and by the agreement with the federal government, under which the northern territory was handed over to federal administration, South Australia claims that the north-south line must be built from Darwin to Oodnadatta.

The federal minister for external affairs, in whose department the northern territory is controlled, now advances yet a third possible route to touch the northeastern border of Western Australia, where much good land is waiting to be opened up.

Railway Development.

It appears to be generally recognized that through communication between north and south is an indispensable preliminary to the white settlement of the northern territory. The federal government is pledged to spare no effort to test the "white Australia" policy, and there is not much doubt that an overland railway would remove most of the objections which white men today have to taking their families to the almost empty north. For this reason alone it is contended the scheme cannot be much longer delayed. The new land ordinances for the territory provide what are officially described as the most elastic and liberal land laws ever devised. The minister for external affairs states, for instance, that the government do not propose charging any rent for agricultural and mixed farming leases for the first ten years. Further, about 5,000 leases will be picked out in different parts of the territory, which will be deemed pioneering leases. There will be granted on the understanding that no rent is to be charged for the lifetime of the person to whom the lease is granted, with a minimum of twenty-one years.

Lord Denman, the governor-general is interesting himself in a project of more than local value, and one which many Australians have long recognized as of vast importance—the breeding of army horses. Over and over again it has been pointed out that the northern table-lands of the continent, especially near the Gulf of Carpentaria, are ideal regions for horse breeding, and that Darwin is a natural outlet for an overseas trade with India for army remounts. Speaking at a big agricultural show the other day, Lord Denman pointed out that not only had the Indian remount market to be provided for, but under the new commonwealth defence scheme double the number of horses would be required for the light horse regiments and for artillery and transport in the near future. He, therefore, thought that breeders, in their own interests as well as on patriotic grounds, might turn their attention to the improvement of this particular class of stock. It is now stated that army horse breeding in the north, will probably soon begin in real earnest. The Barclay tablelands country is a region upon which the energetic new administrator of the northern territory has promptly fixed his attention, and under his encouragement big pastoral developments are being started. One of the leaders of an expedition that set out fourteen months ago on a traveling inspection of this country has just returned to the south. He describes the climate as perfect, with regular and bountiful rains. Rich grasses abound. The expedition was dispatched to select sites for new wells on the stock routes, and to ascertain whether a port could be made readily in the Gulf of Carpentaria for the Eastern Tableland. The expedition passed through 5,000,000,000 acres of green meadow land, which is reached sixty miles from Borroloola, a little township forty miles up the navigable M'Arthur river.

A Kansas Collie.

A dog at the Kansas State Agricultural college does the work of a man and there is no employee at that institution more trusty or better treated. Fannie is the dog's name, and she is a Scotch collie. It is her daily duty to see that the cows are driven to pasture in the morning and brought back in the evening. There is no one who goes along to see if she attends to business, for she is a most responsible sort of dog and nothing can harm the cattle when she has them in charge.

Just at the same time every evening, Leslie Ross, the Scotch herdsman, who is Fannie's master, gives a peculiar whistle, not because it is necessary to call the dog, as she is always ready and waiting, but to give the signal that it is time to drive home the cows. On the instant of that whistle she is up and away. She goes until she reaches the top of a hill near the barn, at the summit of which she never fails to stop and turn around to see if she is pleasing her master. Ross, who is watching, waves his hand as a sign that all is well and Fannie proceeds to round up the cattle.

It is not long before the cows are seen returning in their usual leisurely way. Back of them all is Fannie, urging them on.

Arriving at the barn Fannie's duties are not yet over. Near the entrance is the big crib that holds its tempting dainty of corn for the cows. As soon as Fannie sees that the cows are inside safely, she runs to the corn crib and guards it. oWe to the person or animal who tries to get anything from that crib without Fannie's consent. There she waits until the cows are milked and the crib locked up. Then her tasks for the day are over.

Maybe Ross doesn't think a lot of his dog! She is of the purest Scotch collie strain, with all the faithfulness and intelligence of her distinguished ancestry. Fannie is true to her master and returns his love and kindness by doing her duty by him.— Sadie L. Messier in Our Dumb Animals.

It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darius Downey, of Newberg Junction, N. CABS

Do you know that our glass front carriages are at your disposal at the following charges—

FOUR PERSONS, single hour.... $2.00
FOUR PERSONS, an hour and a half or over, at, per hour $1.50

In four hours a party of four can see the principal points of interest in the City of Victoria for the moderate charge of $6.00.

VICTORIAS

If you wish, we can furnish a Victoria, at

PER HOUR $2.00
SINGLE HOUR $2.50

These vehicles carry three and are most suitable for ladies doing afternoon calling.

TALLY-HO'S

We have the only six-horse turnouts in Victoria. Driven by men who have had a life-long experience on the Cariboo Road and the White Pass & Yukon trails. These coaches leave the hotels at half past nine for the morning drive and two o'clock for the afternoon. All points of interest are covered and those in charge give the passengers a full explanation of everything that is considered of value to the tourist. The drive is about fourteen miles and takes from one and a half to two hours.

The fare is one dollar.

We have a small Tally-Ho built to carry a party of twelve, including the driver. For rates apply at the office.

FURNITURE TRUCKS

Furniture moving is an important undertaking. We have men who do nothing else. Our charges are—

BY THE HOUR $1.50
With an extra man to help, per hour $2.00

BAGGAGE AND EXPRESS

In this department prompt delivery is the important factor. If you are catching a steamer or train you like to know that your luggage or packages will be at the wharf or station in good time to depart with you. What is more annoying than searching for your belongings a minute before your steamer sails or your train pulls out. This is offset by our claim checks. Our drivers check your baggage at your residence. You present the claim check to the baggage-master—show your ticket—he then gives you the railway or steamer check and that is all. You then go on your way rejoicing. If we cannot attend to your order we will tell you and thus avoid suspense.

PER HOUR $1.00

Advance in Price of Finished Steel Products — Railroad Returns for May of Gratifying Character

NEW YORK, June 28.—Except for a formal statement by the United States Steel corporation announcing that it had followed the course of some of its rivals in advancing prices of various finished products and the publication of a few railroad returns for May of a very gratifying character, today's stock market was no less dull, narrow and uninteresting than most of its predecessors of the past two weeks.

Prices, however, hovered a fraction above or below yesterday's closing quotations except in a group of specialties, which included General Electric, Westinghouse common and first preferred, Woolworth, and some more issues in the railway division, Erie, L. & N., Wabash preferred and K. C. S. preferred showed some semblance of activity at improved prices without exciting more than languid attention. Suspension of the regular 2 per cent dividend on Ontario and Western Common, which fell sharply, was without effect on prices, which rose to their best in the final hours. American Tobacco, Republic Iron preferred, and Loco. Traction were features of the late trading.

London's market was as idle as the American, with no evidence of strain arising from the settlements. Ten thousand shares were sold here for foreign account. United States banks stand to lose a large amount of cash tomorrow with a probable expansion of loans. Union Pacific for May decreased its net earnings by $428,000; Southern Pacific lost $112,000; and Lackawanna $20,000.

Bonds were featureless, save for strength in the Tractions. Total sales, par value, $2,870,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

GRAIN MARKET

WINNIPEG, Man., June 28.—Trading on the wheat market was dull and quiet, although option prices for October were 5-8c. higher at the opening and July 1-8c. lower. The cash demand was poor, which had the effect of breaking July prices to some extent, while the hot weather giving no sign of relief in the near future, October still held higher, contracts being made to that month at $1.01.

American markets opened unchanged to 3-4c. higher and continued steady during the session. Continental cables were undecided, while the close at Liverpool was 3-4c to 1-2c. higher. Winnipeg closed 5-8c down after a range of 1 3-8c. Minneapolis closed 1-8c. down for July, September unchanged and December 5-8c. lower. Chicago closed 1-8c. to 1-4c. lower.

Corn was unchanged to 1-8c. lower. The Winnipeg cash demand was very poor for all grades, while offerings were fairly liberal, during the late hours of the session. Oats were were more in demand today at fractionally higher prices. While flax bids were 3 1-2c. higher for October, this was not sustained, flax closing only 2c. up. Receipts were lighter today, 372 cars being in sight for inspection.

MONTREAL MARKET

MONTREAL, June 28.—Weakness in Rio and Sao Paulo were features of the early market. From 147, Rio went to 145, and Sao Paulo opened at 234 1-2. Both rallied a couple of points. Considerable literature antagonistic to the issues has no doubt weakened the market shares. The balance of the trading was colorless.

Steel was firm at 65 to 64 1-2; Detroit 66 3-4; Richelieu 117 1-2, and Toronto rails 143. Rio rallied to 149 in the afternoon, but Sao Paulo was neglected. Toronto rails went off a point to 142, and Tookes eased off to 41. Richelieu was steady at 117 and Steel was firm at 65. Power held at 216, and Shawnigan was strong at 142 1-4.

DUN'S REVIEW

Conditions Throughout Canada—Big Increase in Railroad Earnings

NEW YORK, June 28.—Despatches to Dun's Review from branch offices in the leading trade centres in the Dominion of Canada indicate that satisfactory conditions still prevail and distributions of seasonable merchandise has been stimulated generally by warmer weather.

At Montreal warm and settled weather has helped the demand for summer dry goods and travelling salesmen are selling a good volume of fall orders. There is a good movement in staple lines with prices firm and manufacturers as a rule are well employed.

At Quebec wholesale trade is in satisfactory volume and retailers are doing a big business in seasonable goods, warmer weather having increased the demand in certain lines. Local manufacturers are receiving a good volume of orders.

Wholesale trade at Toronto continues fairly active and all staple lines remain very firm. There is a good sorting up business in dry goods and summer fabrics are in better demand, while orders for fall delivery are encouraging. Leather is firm.

At Hamilton conditions have improved with warmer weather.

At London manufacturers are receiving a good volume of orders and seasonable goods are going freely into consumption.

Weather conditions in the Far West and Northwest are more favorable than for many years at this season of the year. Winnipeg reports that the whole movement of merchandise is well maintained, but there is a lull in some lines owing to the very warm weather. This is regarded, however, as favorable for the crops.

Wholesale houses at Saskatoon report a continued good demand for staples.

Regina reports that warm weather, following rain, has been very beneficial to crops and that advices from all districts note steady improvement in all commercial lines.

The gross earnings of all Canadian railroads to date from the three weeks in June show an increase of 18.5 per cent. as compared with the earnings of the same roads for the corresponding period a year ago.

Commercial failures in the Dominion of Canada this week numbered 26 against 24 last week and 23 the same week last year.

THERE'S NO BETTER SHOE ON THE MARKET THAN

"The Plamate" for Children

This is a sweeping statement to make, in fact it's a statement that cannot be adequately supported without you inspect the shoes.

They are built on common-sense lines, are the natural shape of a child's foot, there's room for all five toes to rest in their natural positions, and, as a natural result, prevent deformities.

Having "Goodyear" welted soles, they are perfectly smooth on the inside, and can be worn with perfect ease without wearing sox. Nothing that can possibly injure the naked foot is present in these shoes.

You don't have to be a doctor to notice the advantages that this line offers for the comfort and well being of your child, and although they are a little more expensive than the average shoe, they more than make up in wearing qualities and solid comfort.

Ankle Strap Pumps are to be had in tan or black calfskin and patent leathers, in all sizes.

Boots in both the lace and button styles are to be had in tan or black calf, and patent leather with dull tops.

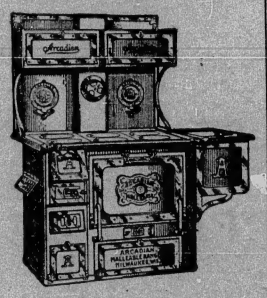
Talking About Ranges Brings to Mind the Merits of the Arcadian



THE cost of its upkeep is nil. It never wants repairing, and it will save its cost in a few years by the fuel it saves. The "Arcadian" is a steel range with a malleable steel top; its parts are riveted so that it never leaks, and consequently it utilizes every ounce of fuel.

There's just enough nickel-plating to set it off, but not too much, and, further, the castings are well finished and moulded without grooves and hollows, that collect dust and keep the housewife forever cleaning the range. The top needs no blacklead—wipe it off occasionally with a greasy cloth, and it is as good looking as the day you bought it. As a water heater it is unsurpassed.

A pinhead water front is employed, which is placed on the opposite side of the oven, so that the oven heats in the shortest possible space of time. The "Arcadian" has duplex grates and burns wood or coal.

Now, then, if you are a prospective range buyer, do you think you would be wise, in the face of these statements, not to inspect the "Arcadian" before you decide on a range? All we do ask of anyone intending to buy a range is a chance to show the excellences of the "Arcadian." If the range itself does not convince you that it is the BEST AT ANY PRICE, we will use no arts of salesmanship to sway your judgment in its favor. Made in four sizes.
